THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

"International Convention - Atlanta, GA"

I was blessed to be able to go to AA's International Convention this year. What a powerful experience! The next one is in Detroit, Michigan in 2020, even closer than Atlanta.

At Friday's "Big Meeting" in the Georgia Dome they announced 56,000 in attendance but people were still registering. I never heard the final count but I'm sure the next issue of Box 459 will have it. Friday's evening started with the Flag Ceremony. 94 countries were represented. I got goose bumps – it was so cool to see AA members carry their country's flag – many were dressed in clothing native to their country which gave me even bigger goose bumps.

Saturday's "Big Meeting" in the Georgia Dome, again, started with a Sobriety count up. Everybody stood and sat as their years of sobriety was called out. The last AA member standing had 66 years of sobriety! There were 100 "Long Timers" in attendance, each with more than 50 years. Twenty old timer's names were pulled out of a hat. They were escorted to the stage and in the order they were called each had 5 minutes to speak.

Sunday's "Big Meeting" closed out the weekend with one man who used sign language to give his lead. The tables were reversed as his lead was interpreted for us. The next man told us he was a "Convict Fireman". He got sober in prison and he learned how to be a fireman in prison, in fact he had to return to prison after he spoke.

The most common questions were – "Where are you from?" and "Is this your first International?" It was the first time for me and my sponsor. We made a point of sitting at tables in the Hospitality rooms with strangers, and they all turned out to be friends we had not met yet. A man from Germany gave me directions to the MARTA (Atlanta's subway). We had ice cream with a woman from Ireland and a couple from Montana. We sat next to people from Japan. Groups of AA's from Mexico would break out into random chanting all weekend.

I cannot make you understand how powerful the weekend was for me. It was on my "bucket list" to attend an International Convention before I retired. Check!
If I put away 5 or 10 dollars each week for the next five years maybe I'll make it again – in retirement. Maybe if you do the same we can all go!!

There Are No Musts

A member feels uneasy about those who tell him he's not doing AA the right way

Recently, I've noticed a different tone, content and message from some members of the Fellowship than I recall hearing in my early sobriety. There seems to be a growing undercurrent of intolerance toward members who are working the AA program "the wrong way." There seems to be a call for such people to return to the "original program" that these folks profess is outlined in the first 164 pages of the Big Book. There are also differences of opinion with regard to whether one should refer to oneself as "recovered" or "in recovery" and controversy around the "singleness of purpose" concept and whether those who also have drug problems should be allowed to share honestly about them at our AA meetings without self-censorship.

I have been verbally attacked for using common AA phrases such as "Take what you like and leave the rest" and even for informing newcomers that they are free to choose their own conception of God. But the one phrase that really seems to incite those on a mission to reform AA is the phrase "There are no musts." I frequently have been told the precise number of times the word "must" appears in the Big Book. And I have even been accused of "killing people" by saying that the AA program is one of suggestions only. In addition I've been told my brand of AA is "watered down" and full of "treatment concepts."

In fact, these ideas that I'm being personally attacked for repeating are in our AA Conference-approved literature. Let's take for example the concept of taking AA "cafeteria style." In our book Living Sober, it says:

"The point is, there is no prescribed AA 'right' way or 'wrong' way. Each of us uses what is best for himself or herself—without closing the door on other kinds of help we may find valuable at another time. And each of us tries to respect others' rights to do things differently. Sometimes an AA member will talk about taking the various parts of the program cafeteria style—selecting what he likes and letting alone what he does not want."

How about the phrase "There are no musts"? Can this concept be found anywhere in our AA literature? You bet your bottom dollar! In the Tradition One chapter of the "Twelve and Twelve," it says:

"Our Twelve Steps to recovery are suggestions; the Twelve Traditions which guarantee A.A.'s unity contain not a single 'Don't.' They repeatedly say, 'We ought ...' but never 'You must!'" In addition, the "There are no musts" phrase was published in Grapevine in February of 1948. They are Bill W.'s words, not mine:

The Third Tradition "tells every alcoholic in the world that he may become, and remain, a member of Alcoholics Anonymous so long as he says so. In short Alcoholics Anonymous has no membership rule.

"Why is this so? Our answer is simple and practical. Even in self-protection, we do not wish to erect the slightest barrier between ourselves and the brother alcoholic who still suffers. We know that society has been demanding that he conform to its laws and conventions. But the essence of his alcoholic malady is the fact that he has been unable or unwilling to conform either to the laws of man or God. If he is anything, the sick alcoholic is a rebellious nonconformist. How well we understand that; every member of Alcoholics Anonymous was once a rebel himself. Hence we cannot offer to meet him at any halfway mark. We must enter the dark cave where he is and show him we understand. We realize that he is altogether too weak and confused to jump hurdles. If we raise obstacles, he might stay away and perish. He might be denied his priceless opportunity.

"So when he asks, 'Are there any conditions?' we joyfully reply, 'No, not a one.' When skeptically he comes back saying, 'But certainly there must be things that I have to do and believe,' we quickly answer, 'In Alcoholics Anonymous there are no musts.'"

Now I fully realize every person in AA and every AA group has a "right to be wrong," and nobody including myself can speak for all of AA. But I have to tell you, I'm getting a little tired of hearing the principles and slogans I got sober with being falsely attributed to some imaginary conspiracy to "water down" AA. My advice is don't listen to the self-proclaimed lecturers and Big Book "gurus." Read the literature for yourself, and find out what's in there. And don't just read the first 164 pages of one book. Read all of the AA literature. That way when someone gets on their soapbox and tries to accuse you of "watering down" the "original program," you'll realize that person just doesn't understand where you got those wacky ideas from in the first place.

From the Archives: AA at Ground Zero

On September 11th, 2001, the attack on the World Trade Center did so much damage, in the thousands of lives lost, in the many more scarred by grief, and in the destruction of so many places full of treasured memories--including A.A.'s first office, at 30 Vesey Street. That was where Bill had moved Works Publishing, the company formed to produce the Big Book, in 1940--"from the tiny cubicle of an office to one slightly larger" there. With that space to work in, and the help of secretary Ruth Hock, he found himself with so much work to do for the fellowship that the room became its headquarters. If we could have walked in there 75 years ago, we might have seen piles of mail that the two of them were busy answering, or the map where they were putting pins for the new groups popping up around the country. They were working on a publishing company, a spiritual fellowship, and its program of recovery all at once, but they would probably have taken the time to welcome us. That spirit was not destroyed on that day in September (A.A. Comes of Age).

In the wake of the attacks, A.A. members pitched in. Some got directly involved in rescue efforts, because they worked as firefighters and police officers. They realized that they needed meetings, and others might, there near Ground Zero. At the same time, requests for meetings were coming to GSO through the Red Cross, just like requests for help had once come across the desk there on Vesey Street. And soon, close to that office that had been sadly lost, a new meeting place was started. Members met for fellowship and meditation, survivors of another kind of disaster (aa.org). And as stories were shared, new bonds were formed, showing the A.A. miracle at work, even on the darkest of days--the light of the love that we find here, that only grows.

GSA Liaison: Zach (GSA Liaison) Area has not met since last Intergroup meeting. Area had an inventory last month. I will report back next month after the next assembly. Hopefully the inventory will have made us aware of some shortcomings and we can outgrow them with God's help.

Archives: Lila (Chairperson) We have attended and/or reported to all four intergroups within Area 50. We reported to the Assembly at the June General Service meeting in Hamburg. We participated in the planning meeting of the Buffalo Fall Convention and look forward to the fast approaching Cataract City Spring Convention planning meetings in Niagara Falls. A total of 5 committee members attended the Area 50 Inventory yesterday which though sparsely attended was INCREDIBLY fascinating and found a number of areas to focus on including the new GSR orientation that had already been started. Very exciting growth in action to work for our primary purpose! Our archives committee had weekly work nights on Mondays.

Upcoming events are: NYState Informational Workshop Aug 14-16, the NATIONAL Archives Workshop by Cleveland Ohio in Independence on Sept 24-27th! Also the Tri-State Assembly at Chautauqua Institute (an AA conference with AI-Anon participation) will happen Sept 18-20! Two amazing events the last weekends of September! I have the registration form available for anyone interested.

Reminder to Buffalo Central Committee Members that the next Archives Breakfast (last Saturday in April 2016) with Gail L. of Akron, Ohio doing her presentation will sell out fast. Flyers will be coming soon.

On July 11th, we displayed at the 17th Day of Sharing at Main & High in downtown Buffalo. On August 22nd, we'll be displaying for the Williamsville Group summer picnic (indoors). Also, we'll be at the District 3 Day of Sharing in September, and at the October 2-4 Buffalo Fall Convention for our next full display. Your archivist and I will be in Cornwall-on-the-Hudson for the Aug 14th New York Info Workshop, where we'll hear about the incredible ideas and activities carried out for our primary purpose in all 4 areas of New York, on all the committees. Archives of course was my favorite at my first workshop last year, but Grapevine was amazing, as well as the TFC, CPC and mind-blowing Public Info Committees! I ordered my Grapevine subscription within a week of returning from that trip, never imagined how many people hadn't ever touched our meeting in print that have received my printed copies.

Did you digitally send a location picture (without people!) as well as coffee pot and literature display photographs to archives@area50wmy.org for power point presentation of area 50 home group pictures? I'm getting notta! The writer for archives articles that go into the New Frontiers (applicable to something that happened THAT month in AA history) is leaving the area, so if you or someone you know might be interested in this task, please let us know! And don't worry, our archivists check articles for you, as in this committee, we are NEVER ALONE.

New Frontiers ~ September 2015

We had donations in June/July from the Blvd Helping Hands Williamsville Group, Main&High, Lockport #1, _____ & _____. Please note we are a financially autonomous committee. Our resources come from group contributions and special events. We receive NO funding from ANY unorganized part of AA for ANYTHING. We rely upon your group and/or individual support to fund our archival work, pay rent for the repository, and participate in archival activities. Note that no funds are used to get members to events and each member pays their own way into events except out of area issues – donations are used ONLY for rent and archival efforts as approved by the entire committee and are protected by the standard method of a multi-signature checking account.

Please send any contributions to: Area 50 Archives Committee, c/o Buffalo Central Office, 681 Seneca Street, Buffalo, NY 14210. We thank you for your continuing support. Archives displays for your group anniversary or special event with hopefully a 30 day minimum advanced notification are GREAT!!!! Sharing the history of AA crucial and capturing the interest of our primary purpose at YOUR MEETING may assist your PP efforts more than you can know. And the usual reminder to all AA members 8 counties of Western New York – throw NOTHING group-related away without considering your archives committee and the unborn alcoholics to come.

Corrections: The corrections committee has been planning a day of sharing which will be held on October 24th. There will be three panels, as well as an informational session to learn more about corrections service and literature. We are working to finalize a flyer by the 12th of this month so it can be in the new frontiers. We are just waiting to hear back about location first. This past month we voted in new positions for the committee. We now have a treasurer, secretary, co-chair, liaison for the female meeting at Erie County Holding Center and the male meeting at Alden. As well as a liaison for Wende, Gowanda and Collins state facilities. We are also continuing to have a table at the parolee orientation and assigned members commitments for the next three months. More detailed information on the day of sharing will be coming soon.

Treatment Terri B-Is the 291 meeting open to outsiders? No it is closed only to the speaker. Zach asked about Renaissance house. Answer is that they do need some volunteers to bring a meeting into that facility, so looking for groups. John stated he would like to announce the treatment committee needs at his home group and asked for a recap of meetings that need commitments which was provided. Diane commented that she and Alan from Brass brought a meeting in to ECMC and it was a wonderful experience and that a lot of the people at the facilities need to know that we care about them as they view themselves as “throw-away”. Pat asked if Renaissance is just a men’s meeting. The answer was that women can come but it is a men’s facility. John asked if the meeting at Renaissance was the HOW group (it was) because they came to his home group seeking help with the meeting. Nadav will follow up on that. Sue B mentioned that Stepping stones also needs support and is a Women’s facility.

Corrections: Reggie asked if Wende (sp?) is covered by corrections. Answer is that it poorly supported due to difficulty in getting cleared to enter, but she would love to speak with anyone about getting signed up. Debbie stated that she is old and losing her memory, but she was in Atlanta for the International Convention, and there was a speaker who is currently in prison for vehicular manslaughter but was able to come to speak with them. The crux of her statement was that meetings brought into prison were extremely helpful to prisoners and that she is amazed by how important the work they are doing actually is. Nadav asked if she was area to speak with Dave the new Area Corrections Chair, she stated that he attended the last meeting. Nadav also asked if the facilities were only in Buffalo, and they are. John asked if anyone from Niagara County was connected to the Buffalo CC corrections. Answer is they don’t attend the meetings but are in contact.

Central Office (None)

PIC: Asked what PIC is doing at ECMC that needs help. Answer was that they provide information to the hospital about what AA is and what it entails. The second Tuesday of each month this presentation is given to the clients at ECMC then opened up for Q&A. Kristen is willing to sit down and go over what the presentation looks like. William asked about the PIC person in Olean, and if they are in contact with the new PIC person in Niagara Falls. Kristen stated that she is not, but would be happy to speak with them. Lila stated that they attend the NY-PENN event every month and invited Kristen to join them.

Convention: Diane asked if those present could bring flyers to meetings. Debbie stated that we should stress that it’s earlier than normal this year.

GSA Liaison: John stated that the next meeting is next Sunday at noon at Hamburg Town Hall. Nadav asked if someone interested in running for a position at Area has to come in August or if they can come in September. Anyone can stand for a position at the meeting in September and be voted upon that very same day.

Old Business

Christine would like to stand for Chair of the Corrections Committee was passed with a verbal vote. Thus she is now the Chair of the Corrections Committee.

New Business

Two new groups requested to be added to the schedule

-What’s going on Group was passed by a show of hands

-Canaan Ministries was passed by a show of hands

Terri let us know that the next meeting is September 13th which is a day after our deadline for the New Frontiers.

Rae Anne mentioned that we could use more names on the 12th step list.

Nick asked if that has to be redone annually or if once your name is on the list, it is on there in perpetuity. Per Terri she doesn’t remove a name until the phone number doesn’t work or she is told otherwise.

Wrap Up

It was announced that Scotty S whose wife is a member of AA passed away.

Thank you to the Brass Group for cake

Next month’s refreshments will be provided by “Women Making the Effort”

Terri mentioned that back in the olden days each meeting would have a 15 minute presentation of the tradition of the month.

Out of nowhere Nadav gave a very brief discussion of the 8th Tradition that AA should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers. It was very informative and brought forth much great discussion, sometimes rambling, but quite poignant.

Zach brought the motion that each month at the beginning of the CC meeting (following the readings) a specific member, chosen the month prior by the Recording Secretary, give an overview, not to exceed 10 minutes, of the tradition; the number of which shall correspond with the number of that month. The motion was seconded by Pat. The vote was 18 for and 1 opposed. Nick gave the minority opinion that it be tabled. The vote passed, next month the ninth tradition will be presented by Jeff of the Derby Group.

Zach asked why the committee chairs do not get a vote on items. After much discussion it was tabled until next month.

Sue brought a motion to close seconded by Andre at 8:16 we closed with the Lord’s Prayer.

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the Spiritual Retreats in AA.

There was a comment made during Central Committee's recent inventory that I would like to address. It was that "Spiritual weekends/events" are not AA events. While this was true "back in the day" when such events were run by clergy, Brothers, Sisters Priests or Pastors, that is not the case today.

Today such events are organized and run by AA members for AA members. This is the definition of an AA function. To be included in the New Frontier newsletter events MUST have an AA speaker. This is true for group anniversaries, picnics and spiritual events. This policy was voted on and approved by the Central Committee years ago.

Central Committee welcomes all groups and members of AA to our monthly meeting held on the first Sunday of each month. If the first Sunday falls on a holiday weekend meetings are moved to the following Sunday, the meeting starts at 7:00 pm. We look forward to seeing you.

A Declaration of Unity
This we owe to A.A.'s future:
To place our common welfare first;
To keep our fellowship united.
For on A.A. unity depend our lives,

When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help I want the hand of A.A. always to be there and for that I AM RESPONSIBLE!
