Spirituality and Money

“IS MY CONTRIBUTION AN EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE AND SERVICE, OR HAS IT BECOME JUST A HABIT?”

I would like to thank Eva and Andrew for my loving invitation to share on this topic. It’s a critical topic, whether I consider it from the vantage point of a grateful, sober member of Alcoholics Anonymous, or from that of a Trustee of the General Service Board with fiduciary and leadership responsibilities. From both places, the admixture of spirituality and money are a function of, and yield: gratitude, service, and responsibility.

We’ve heard a great deal about gratitude, and I will continue that focus, but I also want to talk about this concept of habit. Then I want to talk about the power of example, unity, and finally about communication and transparency—and how these too might intermingle for a positive outcome.

So first, the posed question: gratitude and service versus habit. Of course early on I was taught that participating in the 7th tradition is an expression of my gratitude, which is immense. I know that when I put money in the basket I am expressing that gratitude and participating in service, as Bill W. defines it on the first page of the service manual as “anything whatever that helps us to reach a fellow sufferer,” in my support of the service structure across my group, Central Office, Area, and GSB. This gratitude for and responsibility for our own lives and the lives of future alcoholics, is expressed through that contribution each time it is made. But yes, sometimes when the basket passes, and I throw in my few bucks or my five, it is a function of habit. I do it because I’ve been doing it for decades, and it’s part of the routine.

But really, is that so bad? A habit is “an acquired behavior pattern regularly followed,” “customary practice,” “a dominant or regular disposition or tendency.” This means that a habit is something I do regularly, that it has become routine, it is a regular tendency. I think these are good things, as long as the performance of the action does not negate or eradicate the purpose of the action. Just because something is regular does not mean it is not meaningful. We learn in AA to pray every day . . . Does regular prayer, or conscience contact once it has become a working part of the mind, mean that the prayer or contact is not effective, meaningful, or critical to sobriety? Of course not. It is only when the prayer no longer finds meaning in the words, his/her heart in the contact, his/her direction in the stillness, does the habit become ineffective.

So habits practiced can be good. Habits practiced with meaning are even better. I think, looking at our fellowship as a whole, that the issue is really about helping those that don’t practice this spiritual expression to understand why they might consider doing so. So let’s now turn to talking about the power of example, unity, and communication and transparency.

In AA, we tend not to be order takers. We don’t like to be told to do things and we don’t impress easily. Far more than what they say, what people do has substance and weight. Thus, the power of example. We learn a great deal from that oldtimer putting in a folded five, just as we do the bunch of guys serving a group by painting its walls. These examples are everywhere. (conti-)

The homeless member who puts in a quarter, the member who sets aside some of his meager take home pay to support his group—in fact, just recently a friend of mine was one of these examples. I had forgotten my cash and when the basket came around, he saw that I had no money and he said “I got you” and kicked in extra. The following week when I said “I got you” while having my bills at the ready to return the gesture, he took a greater spiritual step and replied “don’t worry about it, AA needs the money” and kicked in his cash in addition to mine. This isn’t just about the small we; it’s about the whole WE.

So this brings me to the next concept, namely, unity. I know we are talking about the 7th tradition, but humor me for a moment and consider the 1st tradition, the one that states that our common welfare comes first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity. In the essay on this in the Twelve and Twelve, Bill writes about how the sober member comes to understand that “Neither he nor anybody else can survive unless he carries the AA message . . . Realization dawns that he is but a small part of a great whole; that no personal sacrifice is too great for preservation of the fellowship.” So often we learn about the great liberties we have in AA, as long as our choices do not impact the whole. When we realize that we are a part of a whole, and that we have responsibility to the whole, this is when we can exercise autonomy and delight in our unity and strongly support “preservation of the fellowship.” What we have to impress upon our members is that the spiritual gain of giving is not just personal; it sustains our whole society in action carrying the message.

And so here I come to the last idea I wanted to discuss, that of communication and transparency. In a 1952 Grapevine article, Bill wrote: “There was another reason for our collective poverty . . . alcoholics have a terrific aversion to dropping money into a meeting place hat for group purposes. We were astounded to find that we were as tight as the bark on a tree.” Later in 1962, in the essay on Warranty Two of Concept XII, Bill again wrote about our reluctance to contribute, stating that to address this we need only make clear “the real need for a given AA service . . .” that it “is simply a matter of right information and education . . . simply portray what the giver’s dollar really brings in terms of steering alcoholics to AA and in terms of our overall unity and effectiveness.” Here, now 60-70 years later, we find ourselves still having to do the same. As instructed then, we need to continually rely upon our GSRs, DCMs, and Delegates to make the connection between the change in the basket to our worldwide reach, our local & worldwide presence, and our effectiveness. To that end, we need effective communication and transparency to arm our service workers with the information necessary to be able to discuss those connections in a sensible way. Do we in this room have a good sense of what we spend on Conference, Service Desks, the World Service Meeting, Publications? Maybe, maybe not. Some of you teased me recently when I had a not very graceful reaction to learning that we have only 140 members signed up for recurring monthly contributions. Again I wonder, how well have we communicated about the connections between supporting the whole and ways of participating in this? WE in this room knowing these things is insufficient. It is the greater WE that needs to understand. Our prudent financial principles underpin our survival: self-support, corporate poverty, sufficient operating funds and an ample reserve. But the fact that we still (after the better portion of a century) struggle to ‘inform and educate’ our members about the practical and spiritual practice of supporting the whole, including our vital worldwide services, makes me wonder if perhaps we need to better communicate this message, or alternatively, the possibility that maybe the struggle is a part of what keeps us small, poor, humble, responsible, and free.

In closing, I believe that God’s Grace does not have a price-tag on it. It is given when we ask for it and need it. I for one have had a great life because of Alcoholics Anonymous. I am grateful for my own personal successes, but I am far more grateful for the spiritual community that I am but one member of. It is out of gratitude for my life, for the impact on my family that AA has had, for the community to which I belong that I practice the “spiritual habit” of giving with gratitude. I hope I am an example in my actions, and that we in this room are responsible stewards of the finances that support our worldwide work, and that we help each other become effective in communicating our shared unity, responsibility, and gratitude.

~~~~~ SEPTEMBER'S BUFFALO CENTRAL COMMITTEE'S NEW FRONTIERS ARTICLE ~~~~~

A part of our AA history happened in NY City, not long after the unbelievable and unfathomable circumstances that took place on September 11th. In a little AA meeting, close to the ongoing effects of that day, AA's presence was known and meeting the deep needs of many. A part of this meeting's story was written in the following article. I was moved by it when I read about what took place and would like to share some of it with you that have not heard about it. I think it impresses another good reason upon us to feel good about AA and about being a part of it. These are only a couple of excerpts and the entire article can be found at <http://aanaples.org/docs/Courier/CourierSept2016.pdf>.

"It's lunchtime on an early October day in New York City, and we're nearing the end of an AA meeting. The room we're in is much like any other AA meeting room, transformed from its everyday use by the Steps and Traditions, the Slogans, a large Preamble, a table with a literature rack, and a small library of AA books and Grapevines. There's a chalkboard, however, that reveals that not everything here is quite so ordinary, for it's crammed with people's names and home groups, written on each day. And most of the AA members in the room are men who've arrived in hardhats and boots which they had to wash off before entering the building. The weary looks on their faces tell you they've come right off the job. Just look out the window and you'll see from where: lines of trucks and construction equipment move slowly past, kicking up a gritty, dull gray dust. Everyone is wearing facemasks or eye gear or protection of some kind, and at the corner, city police and National Guard stop passersby and check their IDs. You see, two short blocks south of here lay the ruins of the World Trade Center, and yet today the twelve of us have gathered in this room to have an AA meeting, at what's come to be called the Ground Zero Group." It's not a group in the usual sense. We have no regular meeting schedule, no group officers or meeting chairs, and everyone hails from a home group somewhere else-sometimes far removed from the city. But it is an AA room even so, and a very special one at that. Most times the meetings simply materialize when enough AAs have walked in and joined the two volunteers who are always here, twenty-four hours a day, in six-hour shifts. Earlier this morning, for instance, four of us listened to a reading from Daily Reflections and then began a round-robin discussion. The meetings grow and shrink as people show up or are called away by their pagers. That's the way it goes here at Ground Zero, the message of recovery sprouting up suddenly for a few precious minutes before it's time to go back to the dreadful toil outside this room."

And from the same article:

"On September 11th, 2001, the attack on the World Trade Center did so much damage, in the thousands of lives lost, in the many more scarred by grief, and in the destruction of so many places full of treasured memories--including A.A.'s first office, at 30 Vesey Street. That was where Bill had moved Works Publishing, the company formed to produce the Big Book in 1940--"from the tiny cubicle of an office to one slightly larger" there.

Treatment – The treatment committee is currently responsible for bringing the hand of Alcoholics Anonymous into 6 facilities. With the help of 35 groups, there are collectively 11 "TFC meetings" a week going on at these facilities.

We met 8/6/17 at 17 Gierlach St, 530pm. There were 10 members representing 9 groups. We discussed a couple of missed commitments and how to ensure that this doesn't happen again in the future. A group stepped down from their commitment at ECMC rehab on the second Tuesday of the month. This position is available for any group that does not currently have a commitment with TFC. The rep. from Abbot Mens who is responsible for the V.A. would like it known that they are looking for more speakers, especially women for their meeting which is Wednesdays at 8pm. Are 50 treatment will be hosting a day of sharing September 23rd from 12-3 at the hope center. Anyone currently involved in bringing meetings into treatment facilities or interested in learning more about it should attend.

Outside of joining our committee, there are a few areas where AA members, and groups, can be of service through treatment.

1. Individuals may take a speaking commitment at Horizon Village Terrace House on a Thursday at 6pm.
2. All groups who currently have commitments through the Treatment Committee can, and should, send a representative to our monthly committee meeting to inform us about anything more we could be doing to be of service to them, and also to allow us to inform their groups, through them, about anything pertinent to their continued Twelfth step work through TFC.
3. Any group that is interested in taking on a commitment at one of our facilities is more than welcome to contact us and we will do what we can to fit them in. Groups are currently bringing meetings into ECMC, Salvation Army, Turning Point, the V.A., and Reflections 4. Area Treatment is forming a Bridging the Gap program for all of Area 50. At this moment any member willing to help clients leaving Treatment Facilities “bridge the gap” between treatment and AA can sign up on the new “Bridging the Gap Volunteer Form” found on the Area 50 web page. www.wnyarea50aa.org. This program will be going live after central committee elections this year.

Thank you to all groups and individuals who are involved in this vital 12th step work. To get involved, or if there are any issues you need to contact us about, please email us at buffalotfc@gmail.com or come to our monthly meeting the 1st Sunday of the month 9/10/17 at 17 Gierlach St, Sloan NY 14212 5:30pm.

Yours in service, Jesse S. Treatment Committee Chair

GSA Liaison – The general service assembly meeting was held July 29th at 3:50 Bank Street Batavia New York last month. I attended serving as the general service liaison for the Buffalo Intergroup. I gave a report to the body pertaining to the information I gathered from the previous intergroup meeting. It has been shared to me that communication between the two bodies was crucial. There was a new motion brought to the floor to change the district structure. Currently we have 22 districts most of which are inactive. The thought is to reduce the number to 9 bringing the district's closer together possibly increasing involvement. The motion can be looked at closer at the area website area 50 WNY. Org. Elections will be held at the next assembly. They will meet September 9th at Salem Lutheran Church 271 white field ave. yours in service Nick Buscarino GSA Liaison

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

Bill W. wrote of Intergroup Offices, "Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that AA must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill"

"Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix" pamphlet

7TH TRADITION CHALLENGE

"Now that we are sober in A.A., the word 'support' has to do with sharing, people, self-respect, gratitude, and what we are privileged to give - not take - in material terms."

We are self-supporting through our own contributions - Many of our branches are suffering from lack of support (GSO, Area, H&I, Central Office). How much does one drink cost? If it were not for Alcoholics Anonymous, we'd be drinking plenty!

Drop the cost of one drink into your home groups basket when it comes by . . . you can't afford not to!

Concept IX: Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees.

- Do we discuss how we can best strengthen the composition and leadership of our future trusted servants?
- Do we recognize the need for group officers? What is our criteria for election?
- Do we sometimes give a position to someone "because it would be good for them"?
- Do I set a positive leadership example?
