Bright promise

The other evening, while driving out to a meeting at Wende Prison, I asked myself how I would like going to one meeting a week. I know for me it would be hard staying sober that way. I need to be around other alcoholics to stay sober. Or, at least to be able to call them on the phone if I can't get to a meeting. This we take for granted. But, the men and women in prison don't have the same freedom we on the outside enjoy.

In my early years of sobriety, I started going to prison meetings because I noticed that the AA members who went out to prison meetings had a lot of serenity. This is what I wanted. Before they would let me go in I had to see the man in charge of the rehabilitation program. After I told him that I wanted to carry the AA message to those on the other side of the walls, he wouldn't let me in. He was afraid the inmates would make fun of me because of my Cerebral Palsy. I told him I didn't care because all my life people have made fun of me. I just wanted to carry the message of recovery. But he wouldn't let me in.

I didn't give up on the idea, however. Ten years later, I talked to a man named Harry. He went to the same prison meeting every week, and asked me if I wanted to go with him. I told him the man in charge wouldn't let me go in. Harry told me he would take care of it.

A week later, I made my first prison meeting. I have been going ever since. I had to give it up for one year because my wife was very sick. Eventually, I lost my job, and my wife had to be put in a nursing home. I went back to that prison meeting to help stay sober during the worst times of that period.

After being back to the prison meeting for two weeks steady, Harry told me that he had to go to the hospital for almost a month and was afraid that no one would take over the prison meeting. I told him that I would if he thought I could do it. He told me that he believed I could.

That's how I became the outside sponsor of Wende Correctional's AA meeting. From the start, I was getting along very well with the inmates. They knew that I respected them, and they respected me. There was only one bad incident: a prisoner kept talking, disrupting the meeting. This went on for a couple of weeks. At the start of the third, I told him to be quiet, or he would have to leave. He came to get me saying "Make my day, Sucker," but he walked right by. I never saw him again. I knew there was a guard right outside the door. That was the only bad time I ever had since I began going to prison meetings.

Someone once asked me if I worry something might happen to me in a prison meeting. I told them no because I am doing God's work. God will never permit anything bad to happen to me as long as I do His will.

I was at a meeting the other night, talking to a man I had taken to a prison meeting some time back. He told me that when he heard the gate slamming behind him he was scared. But once inside, he felt at home with the inmates. When I'm at a prison meeting, I do feel at home with the men, I identify with them. My Higher Power told me that I should visit the prisoner. I didn't pick prison to carry out the Lord's work, he wanted to use my handicap to do His work.

When I go to the meetings on the outside, the newcomers want to know how they can get a better self-image, or how they can get serenity. When I was a beginner, I asked the same question. I found that doing service work is the answer.

The QUALITY of your life depends on

A Power Greater Than Alcohol

When I first heard a Power Greater Than Ourselves I thought here they go again on the religious stuff. But, when my head started to clear I realized what a fool I would be to say I can't believe in a power greater than myself. Wasn't I the one who could control my intake of alcohol? I'm not like those in AA. I only drink to be happy, not like those in AA. I can drink and I don't have to go to those meetings. I have lost count of how many days I spent worshipping that bottle of Royal Crown, but it was certainly a power greater than myself.

I pray to God, but I believed it was a drink that would make me feel better. I was so insane that I thought alcohol would bring me to sanity. If it was a rough day, and finally every day was a rough day, then what I believed in was a drink. Surely, I could believe in a Higher Power that would reward my adoration a little more decently than that. So my first few meetings was a lesson in learning about myself. I had so much denial and had a hard time accepting suggestions on your experiences. If you need help try helping another alcoholic stay sober. You might find you are helping yourself too.

We should remember all we have is a daily reprieve from alcohol. Get involved with AA. Volunteer to go to treatment and correctional facilities. It just might help you on a spiritual awakening. It did for this alcoholic. So why not give it a chance? How does it work? Just fine, if you work at it.

Today I'll do what is needed for my sobriety and then I can be grateful for what God has given me: a day of sobriety. I must not forget to thank my Higher Power for a sober day of not letting me pick of that first drink. Let Go and Let God. Get out of the driver's seat. There is a power greater than myself.

Chapter Nine

It's certainly a shame that Sean C. and Jason are out of town since they generally inspired me to write a "Keep It Simple" message to these spiritual giants who helped us all.

Be that as it may, the inspiration is one of gratitude for this offering. Something we too often fail to address.

It may have been the second year of my quest for sobriety when my illustrious sponsor, Jack B., warned me "Do not place any limits on God!" Of course, I had no idea what he was trying to say at the time, still foggy in the throes of withdrawal, self-pity, and convinced that coming to AA was another of my numerous failures.

The only job available was menial, low-pay, beneath my dignity, etc., but I was lucky to get it, unemployable as I was. The same sponsor weaned me into a slightly better position, still demeaning, degrading, etc., but the hours were 6 AM to 12 noon. The hours allowed me to pursue my career field, and despite all the bridges I had burned, in my third year of sobriety, I got my foot back in the door.

Two years ago, after some unforeseen unemployment, I walked into a better-paying job without a clue how I would ever be able to retire. Recently, a disability happened, unannounced and unexpected, and a blessing in disguise.

Having learned that there's no such thing as a free lunch, I can live with this disability, and at the age of sixty-two I am retired in the first decade of sobriety.

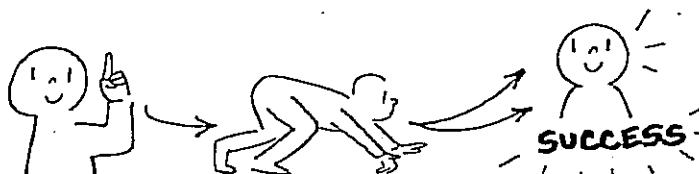

Thanks Jack B. Never again will I place limits on the power of God.

From the Desk of Paul R., Freedom Group...

Old Timers' Day Report

Out of seven speakers, six showed up. Out of five moderators, two had to cancel. There was one alternate with thirty-four years of sobriety who filled in. Attendance was approximately one hundred seventy people.

After all expenses were met, it turned out that the event supported all financial responsibility, leaving a zero balance.

There was plenty of food, coffee, and soda for all those present. The panels were excellent. Even with the inclement weather, we had people come from Jamestown, Rochester and Canada. In my humble opinion, it was a success, and a great experience for all who attended.

Thanks go out to all the workers, the person who made the hall available, and to our small committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Paul R.
Freedom Group

In God's every strength He will supply love and peace you can't deny. You only must look so quiet and still, and ask your Lord to do His will. He'll take your hand and guide you too. Your weary heart He will renew. Trust and believe your answer is near. Let go and let God and have no fear. For when you trust and turn to Him, no matter what you are sure to win.

We surrender to win. On the face of it surrendering certainly does not seem like winning. Absolute Honesty: "To thine own self be true."

We Give Away To Keep. That seems absurd and untrue. Absolute Purity, is not only a law of Christian life, demanding a clean mind in a clean body.

We Suffer To Get Well. There is no way to escape the terrible suffering of remorse, regret, shame and embarrassment which starts us on the road to get well. Absolute Unselfishness, is only possible if we have absolute love. We can only be unselfish according to the love we bear towards the object of our unselfishness.

We Die To Live. That is a beautiful paradox straight out of the Biblical idea of being "born again," or "losing one's life to gain eternal life." Absolute Love is the motive for Absolute honesty, purity and unselfishness.

Alcoholism, as a disease, is the insidious "Silent Dictator:" cunning, baffling, powerful, and sometimes deadly! As cunning as a tiger stalking its unwary prey. Baffling to the medical profession's most informed doctors, our employers, our family, friends, and, finally, ourselves. Powerful enough to crumble armies, steal fortunes, ruin families, destroy self-esteem, and change personalities.

Many hypotheses are formulated to explain the reason for our disease: emotional instability, immaturity, an unnatural chemical make-up of the body resulting in a physical susceptibility, the escapist complex, or numerous other idiosyncrasies. To simplify, we identified it as an allergy, fatal if left untreated. Alcoholism began subtly and progressed alarmingly fast.

THE SILENT DICTATOR WAITS

In the beginning, our use of alcohol seemed innocent enough, a few beers as we lightheartedly drifted through life. "Our Happy Days." We worked hard to provide for our families. Our friends and associates admired us for our tenacity and zest for life. We were fun loving people, full of childish pranks and giddy, top-of-the-world, hand gliding, roller coaster experiences. The euphoric feeling was exhilarating! Alcohol was our best friend. It brightened up our lives, softened our sorrows, and enhanced our personalities.

THE SILENT DICTATOR WAS PATIENT!

Quickly, our drinking habits began to change. Our alcoholic cravings were insatiable. We became restless, irritable, and depressed. Our world was upside-down. The happy sensations alcohol used to produce caused us misery and despair. That sense of comfort and relief that used to blanket us when we drank vanished. The temperate and social drinker was dead. A psychic change occurred; our tolerance level was unbelievable. Alcohol was the main course in our daily diet.

How did this phenomenon occur? We lost our jobs, friends avoided us and we were presented with DWIs. Alcohol was not an option anymore; it was a necessity! We needed it or we would surely die. Everyone and everything was unimportant. Alcohol dictated our every move. We changed drinks, made promises, set time limits to recapture the "Happy Days," but to no avail.

Finally, alcohol dominated us totally, a sort of spontaneous human destruction. Invisible gremlins reeked havoc in our lives. Poltergeists inhabited our world. We were terrified and hopelessly addicted! We, too often, substituted agony for action. The disease of alcoholism paralyzed our thinking. We are ensared in the dictator's trap.

THE SILENT DICTATOR EMBRACED US WARMLY

Our physician told us we should cut down on drinking. We tried to have one drink, only to end up miserably drunk. Black-outs marred our memory. We were defeated!

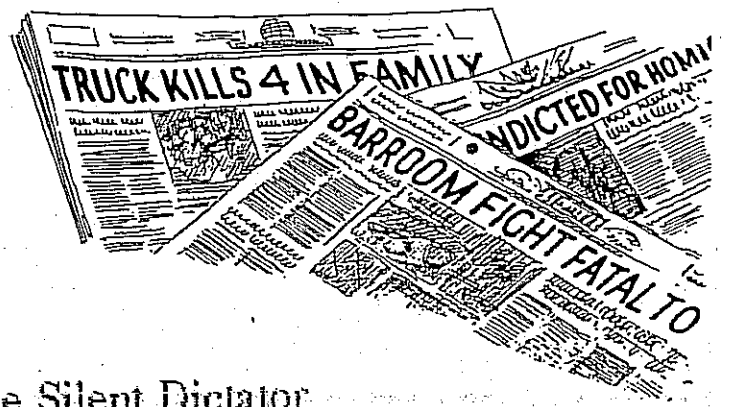

AA is mentioned to us as a possible solution. We treat the word "alcoholic" with contempt and denial. We aren't one of those social derelicts!

Most of us came to AA with no brutal honesty, no abundance of courage, but rather, filled with a vengeance to prove that AA is not for us. Alcoholic? Not me!

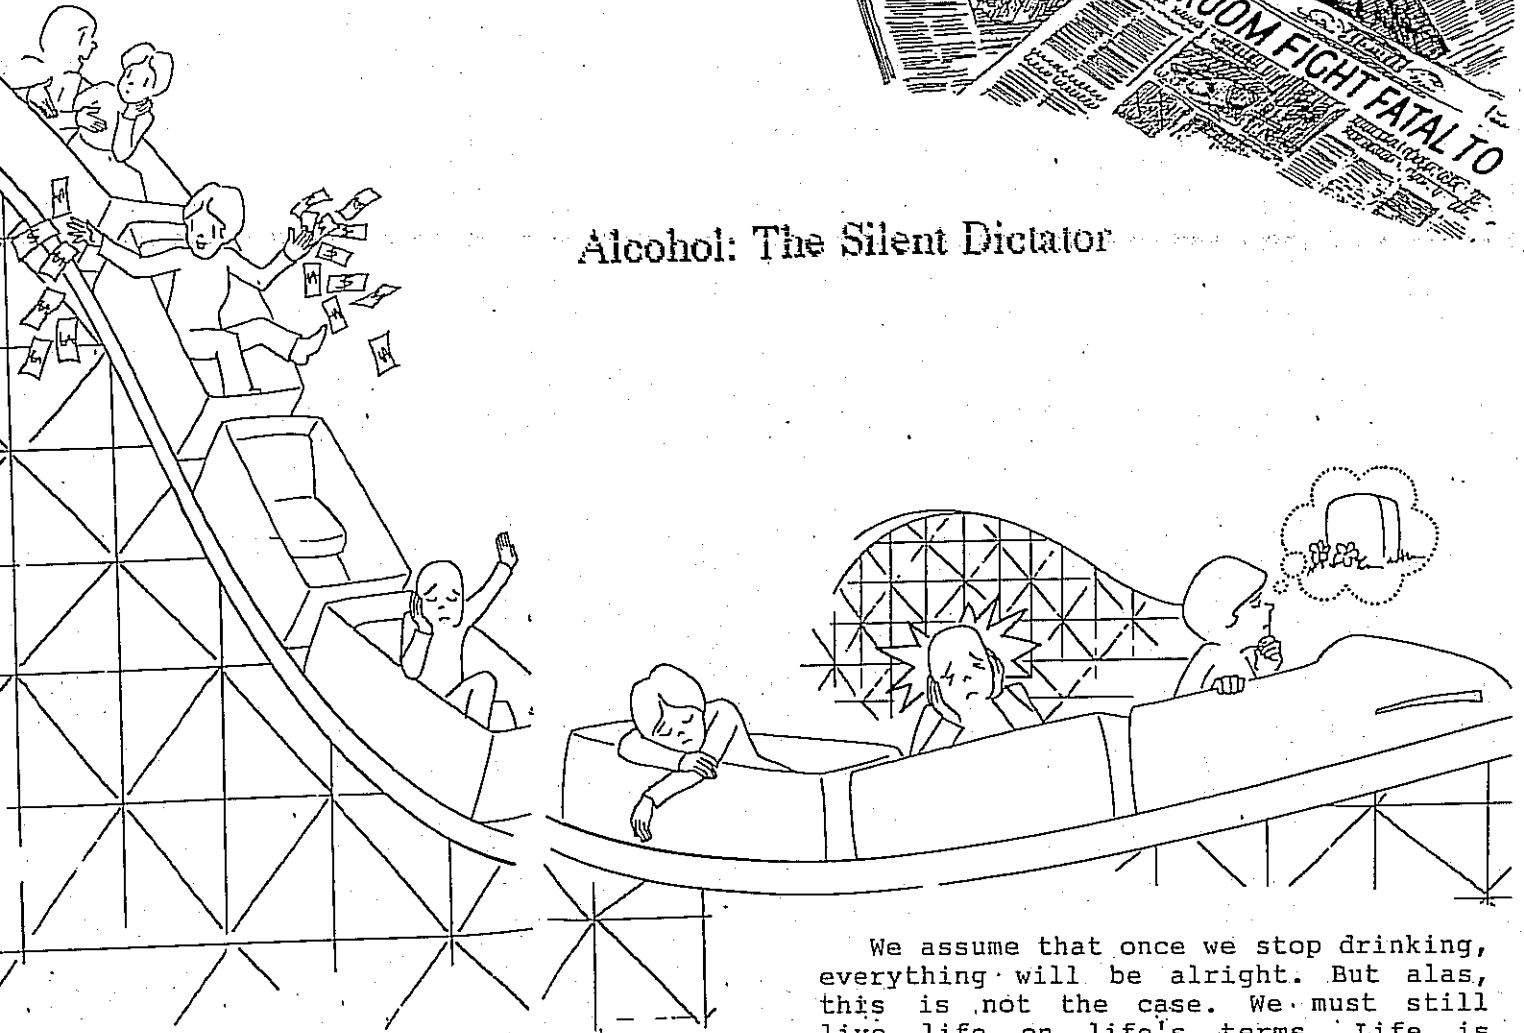

THE SILENT DICTATOR SMILES!

At our first AA meeting we are greeted warmly, but feel uncomfortable. We hear many things, but they don't apply to us. Our alcoholic thinking and denial block out most of what is said. We hear that alcoholism is a disease. This announcement is somewhat amusing. A disease? "Well, cure me," we demand! Then we are told it is a progressive, incurable disease. Now we are thoroughly confused.

We notice the smiling faces of other people at the beginners' table. What the hell are they smiling about? Are they laughing at me? Our paranoia sets in.

Alcohol: The Silent Dictator

Someone puts us at ease with a simple statement: "We understand what you are experiencing, because we've all been there." This expression is mildly comforting. We ask, "What do I have to do?" We are told to attend as many meetings as possible to keep an open mind. We do as we are told, reluctantly, and a miracle takes place. We somehow find the true meaning of the AA way of life. We are helped by the experience and guidance of other AAers around us. We accept that we will never be able to drink again. AA offers us understanding and friendship as we have never experienced before.

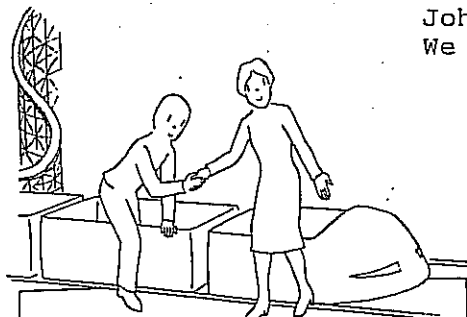

We begin to believe in a Higher Power for our spiritual deficiencies. The alcoholic fog begins to lift, slowly. AA suggests that we correct our introverted thinking by social and physical activities to release our nervous energy. We are offered a new way of life, and with continued honesty and sincerity of purpose, we can arrest our disease of alcoholism.

We assume that once we stop drinking, everything will be alright. But alas, this is not the case. We must still live life on life's terms. Life is no Pollyanna fantasy. It's real! AA is: say a prayer, don't pick up the first drink, and go to a meeting. It works!

Our true friends help us through difficult times. Now, armed with a home group, many meetings, a sponsor, a host of AA friends and a belief in a Higher Power, we are free of the bondage of alcohol. A new life awaits us ONE DAY AT A TIME.

Let us never forget that THE SILENT DICTATOR WAITS IN THE SHADOWS with open arms, should we fail to practice these principles in ALL our affairs.

God Bless,
John H.

NEW FRONTIER: KEVIN F - EDITOR

We have a new person helping with the newsletter, Tom K from Powerless.

FALL CONVENTION '95 - Cindy H, Twin Cities, Co-Chairman

We are currently meeting at St Simon's Church on the 3rd Thursday of each month. (all are welcome) Just Thursday 16th of March, we will be meeting at the Marriott.

Bill G has begun meetings with his Program Committee - All are welcome.

Terry Bateman has begun Committee meetings for Hospitality - all are welcome.

Speakers are still undecided.

Our main topic of this month's meeting at the Marriott - will be the cost of registration. We will try to keep the same cost as last year.

Registration Chairman has gotten a Post Office Box:

PO BOX 58, ORCHARD PARK NY 14127

Preliminary flier was released with the wrong dates. It will be corrected. before final registration flier is in circulation OCTOBER 20, 21, 22 1995.

COURTESY REPORTS:

GENERAL SERVICE ASSEMBLY - MICHAEL B - CHAIRMAN/AREA #50

The next General Service Meeting is March 26, 1995.

Business handled at the last GSA Meeting:

1. New Area archivist, Bill C, Thruway Group & new area archivies Committee Chairman, Paul R, Freedom Group.
2. New CPC chairman is Dave B of the Thruway Group. The next meeting of the committee will be March 11 at the Church where the Courage Group meets (Maryvale Presbyterian Church) at 9am.
3. New York General Service Office is bringing a Special Forum to our service area on 31 / April 1 at the Marriott Inn Moterl on Millersport hwy, Amherst. See flyers to be sent our for details. (page 2 of 2 - GSA report
4. The General Assembly took it's inventory last month. Many good suggestions have been put down on paper and our Assembly will start to act on them at once.
5. Next Assembly will be hosted by the Lew-port Group in Lewiston. Our main agenda item will be pre-conference items.
6. If your group is not represented by G.S.R now, why not send one to the next Assembly?

RE-CAP:

CENTRAL COMMITTEE - Larry S spoke on Committee Chair persons not being at Steering Committee. He asked each Chairperson to give a 2 minute presentation of ENVELOPE SYSTEM - MEL L - Every month you (the subscriber) get a report of monies you've contributed and a return envelope for the next contribution. At Central Committee a report is given as to how much was collected. The job also includes carrying the message on how the Envelope System works.

Tina F asked if there was a limit on how much could be donated - Mel will check into it - though he thinks there is a $500 limit. (Actually $1000)

Elizabeth G objected to the fact that too much time was going into re-cap

STEERING COMMITTEE - Sonny J - Representative from District #3, explained you visit groups in your district, bring problems that can't be dealt with by group conscience to the Steering Committee

Mel explained "work" prevents him from attending.

Question: "Who can go - anyone?"

Question: "How do you become a District representative?"

Answer: "Get voted in by Central Committee."

Question: "Are there any openings on the Steering Committee for a District Representative?"

Answer: "Yes - Districts #5 Niagara County, #6 Southwest, #8 Northeast, #9 South Central, #10 Genesee & Wyoming Counties."

Question: "What is the sobriety time required."

Answer: "2 years"

Question: "When do you vote?"

Answer: "Next, in September."

FINANCIAL REPORT

Question: "Dave asked why $3000 was sent to AA World Services?"

Answer: "Literature order."

Question: John asked about salaries & reimbursements

Answer: "Larry said Delphine can clarify next meeting."

Question: "Who makes up the Financial Statements?"

Answer: "Executive Secretary"

Comment: The treasurer should make out the report so he could answer questions on the Statements.

Comment: New people don't seem to know their groups aren't contributing.

CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES - RON S explained what the chairman qualifications are which is 5 years of sobriety. What the Committee does is bring meetings to the Correctional Facilities. You must have six months of sobriety to share and 1 year to chair a meeting. The Chairperson maintains the schedule and makes sure the meetings conform to AA traditions.

SCREENING COMMITTEE - LISA Y explained that no time was required for either job of 12 stepping or screening. Mel L felt there should be a time requirement of 12 step workers and that one person should have been through and worked the 12 steps to the best of their ability. She explained the difference between screeners and 12 steppers. Screeners take the calls from the Answering Service, screen or evaluate the need of the caller and use their 12 step list to call a person from the area of the caller.

NEW FRONTIERS - Ron S in the (absence of Kevin F, editor)

Ron helps in folding, put together and mail the newsletter. It is under Central Committee and put out from the office. Always looking for new ideas. A years subscription is still $7.00.
