THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER
We request that this newsletter be kept within the Fellowship to insure anonymity.

Is this when I let go and let God?

It's been a tough week for a lot of folks I care about and I ended up in Central Office for quite a few trips. As I keep listening at different conversations in the office I hear a lot of calls being made for:

(A) taking newcomers to a meeting

(B) 12 step calls

and searching for home phone numbers / or people in charge of different committees.

I look at worried faces of the volunteers in Central Office as to what to do to help these people!

I got very angry for a minute, because as new as I am, it's not supposed to be that way! I see few people these days helping each other as opposed to when my grandfather Dave K. was alive, he never said no to AA he said it was his responsibility to give what was given to him.

"I am Responsible – When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA to be there, and for that I am Responsible."

The old -timers need a rest once in awhile. From where I was sitting it's always the same people. Thank God for them! Michele K. Courage Group Went running with the dog today. We went to trail that is north of town and is fairly rugged. It's the first time we've been able to run it this spring. Near the lake a dense fog was rising and the air was still. With the calling of the Canadian geese in the distance and the chattering of the smaller woodland creatures, it is very easy to connect to my higher power.

Today, this was not easy. Instead of letting a connection with God happen, I tried to make it happen. This has been an interesting week and really need to meditate. However, since sobriety, there has been a realization that when I am in the here and now, it's easier to understand what God is telling me. The trail was getting tough. The areas that were normally low had filled with the melting snow and became small ponds. Some of these we could jump over, others we had to go around. One particularly enjoyable spot a downed wet moss covered tree was used to cross the obstacle. The shoes are wet now, but that is to be expected. There were still areas of snow, but not very deep. With all the patches of ice and the knotted tree roots reaching out of the ground, failure to stay in the here and now is hazardous.

After getting a little lost then finding the trail again, my focus was able to return to a little broader spectrum. It took just a moment to realize that the dog had run off on her own adventure. Sigh. She should know better than that by now, but she does not do better than that sometimes. Sigh. It was not long before we found each other again. After making sure she was OK, I was looking to see what she rolled in...nothing this time. The thought, "why do they do that?" came to mind.

There is not a doubt that the dog sees me as a higher power. And there is not a doubt that she loves me. There is no doubt that she would unquestionably do my will, if she could always understand it. But, she leaves my side to go off on her own adventure and forgets about me and my will for her. When she does come back, she is always happy to find me again, but still has her tail between her legs and begs forgiveness. A forgiveness that is willingly bestowed even though I know the first time she gets overly excited, she'll be off and running again. Maybe next time she'll roll in it. With her, I will lovingly help clean up the mess she has gotten herself into again. Then do my best to make her feel warm, secure and loved again. Until the next time she decides to do her will and not mine. Looking at that happy fuzzy face and into those excited eyes, I heard my higher power. His will, not mine

God help me to set aside all I think I know about my disease, these steps, God, and my concept of spiritual principals in favor of a new experience.
Help me to set aside all I think I know

IN MEMORIAM

Jack G. and Albert C. both long time members of AA have passed away recently let us remember them and their friends and families in there time of sorrow.

Courage

For many years I used alcohol and believed alcohol gave me the courage that I was looking for, however that was a fallacy. Not until I came into recovery and found a power greater than myself. I've been able to ask God for the power to change the things I need to change. And God has given me the ability to what is necessary, which includes following directions that are given to me by some old-timers, as they share with me what has worked for them. And by having the courage to do what was suggested to me to change my attitude and behavior my conscience won't let me behave the way I used to because of this course of action. I've been granted a wonderful spiritual life," from God and Alcoholics Anonymous." Thank You God and AA

TODAY

TODAY I am willing to deal with my pain:
TODAY I am willing to talk about it.
My biggest relief comes
In knowing I'm not alone.
There millions of us out there.
The difference is I have a program:
TODAY that enables me to talk about it

Fears and Tears

I started dinking when I was young and had a very sharp tongue. I wouldn't share my fears and made sure no one saw my tears. This went on for many years leading me not have many cares, living a dark and empty life for many years, seeming like I would die with all these fears, lies, and tears. Until a light shined on me and led me to people with fears just like me they said they could care and share what they have done to live a life with joy and fun. Thanks God and AA.

Hold on slow down don't go so fast, one day at a time is all we need last.

Some days we think we can hardly bare, on others we know the true joy that is there.

We are not unique in anyway, God will not give us more than we can handle today.

Don't get to hungry, angry, lonely, or tired, or soon you will find your peace of mind has expired.

These are the words we repeatedly hear, they keep us from getting lost in the fear.

God speaks through each one of us, of this is I am sure, for it is at the tables that we learn to endure.

We work 12 steps to keep our feet on the ground, and this is how our freedom is found

So easy does it, but do it my friend, this is the message we are trying to send.

12 promises of this we are guaranteed, but remember, it's only one day at a time we learn to succeed! ...Lucille K. Honesty Group

The important thing about your lot in life,

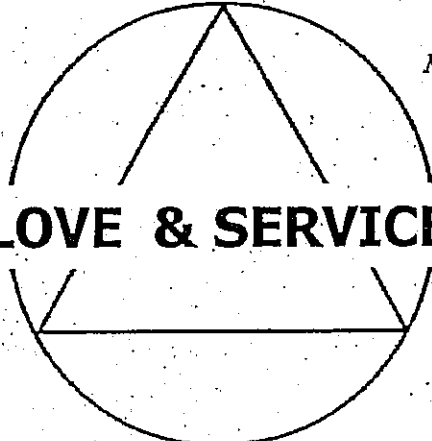

Is whether you use it for parking or building!

Regional Forums and Special Forums

Regional Forums originated in 1975 at the suggestion of the late Chair Emeritus of the General Service Board of Trustees, Dr. Jack Norris. They are weekend sharing sessions designed to improve communication and participation among A.A. service workers in a region, the General Service Board, A.A. World Services, Inc., the Grapevine Corporate Board, the Grapevine Staff, and the General Service Office Staff.

At the invitation of a region, four Regional Forums are held each year. Since the U.S./Canada service structure is composed of eight regions, a Regional Forum may be held in alternate years in a particular region on a rotating basis.

The location and agenda for a Regional Forum are decided jointly by the Regional Trustee, Area Delegates and the G.S.O. The responsibility for direct contact with the hotel is assumed by a local A.A. Host Contact working with the Regional Forums Coordinator and Regional Trustee. The Regional Forum Coordinator at G.S.O. distributes registration forms and invitations to groups and service workers through the region and, working with the Host Contact and Regional Trustee, coordinates the details of the Forum.

A region may request a Special Forum which has fewer participants from the boards and staff over shorter time periods. Special Forums require the approval of the trustees' Committee on International Conventions/Regional Forums. They may be designed for remote, sparsely populated or urban areas. The Regional Forums Coordinator works closely with the Regional Trustee and Host Contact tailoring each agenda to local needs.

There is no registration fee for a Region or Special Forum. The General Service Board covers the expenses of meeting rooms, transportation and hotel rooms for its board and staff personnel. In many places, area committees, districts and groups cover or defray the transportation and lodging expenses of the trusted servants representing them at a form.

Forums are intended to be sharing sessions, thus no formal actions result. Forums provide unique opportunities to share valuable experience, ask questions and spark new ideas. Regional and Special Forums carry the A.A. message through service.

STEP FIVE THOUGHT:

Higher Power, my inventory has shown me who I am, yet I ask for your help in admitting my wrongs to another person, and to you. Assure me, and be with me in this step, for without this step I cannot progress in my recovery. With your help, I can do this, and I will do it.
