THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

The Middle Steps In a Timely Manner

Luckily, my sponsor, Carl, allowed me almost no "let me think it over" time as we approached my initial middle step process. No time for fear or hesitation was available!

Only minutes after praying the Third Step request for God's help, he had me start a process I call "spontaneous writing" which provided substantive and honest Fourth Step information. I was warned not to write good things about myself because that would take too many pages. Ha!

This spontaneous writing process started on a Saturday, "at once," per page 64 instructions, and we then completed the Step Four instructions the following Saturday. Carl then helped me actually "read and do" the Fourth Step process directly from the Big Book (p 64-71). This process lasted about one hour.

The Step Five process of reporting my newly found character defects, etc., began just a few minutes after finishing Step Four (First opportunity, p. 74), and Step Six began, "then," (p. 76) and Step Seven was prayed at "When ready" (p. 76). Steps Four through Seven, were completed in a few hours that last Saturday.

Doctor Carl Jung has written "People will do anything to avoid facing their own soul." Thankfully, my sponsor didn't give me time to back out. He followed the Big Book timetable!

Over the years, as I watch newcomers too often disappear between Steps Three and Four, I have become much more appreciative of the Big Book's timetable for the middle steps. I believe too much in-between time allows fear and doubt to take over; then, even the sincerest Third Step decision will often deteriorate into indecision and inaction.

Sometimes I hear: "God will show me when to start my inventory," or, "I plan to take my time and do it right" . . . and so on. I believe it is good to explain, at this point, that what is missed in Step Four can always be taken care of in Step Ten—even years later when they crop up.

Step Ten is continually redoing of the mid-steps of the "learning" process above! First of all, I had to learn how to do the mid-steps—only then could I actually put them into action by following these clear-cut Step Ten directions on page 84:

- We continue to watch for selfishness, dishonesty, resentment and fear. (Step Four)
- When these crop up we ask God at once to remove them. (Steps Six and Seven)
- We discuss them with someone immediately. (Step Five)
- Make amends quickly if we have harmed anyone. (Steps Eight and Nine)

Speaking of a "timely manner" as in the title of this article, I believe it is important to realize that as I go through my day, to remember that the step Ten instructions include the phrases: "at once," "immediately" and "quickly." Of course, these phrases are to be used in sensible context, for the Big Book infers that God gave me brains to use! For instance, not to phone my sponsor at work, simply, because I have some trivial concern or small problem.

Early on, I thought the above directions were to be done only before going to bed at night. Of course, that came from a misreading of the first full paragraph of page 86 which is Step Eleven. I now realize that Step Ten is to be done throughout each day. Living these middle steps, via Step Ten, continually provides relief from the anxiety and fear of my drinking days. But I need to remember that AA is a program of action!

Is "Attraction" Spelled With Four Letters?

Does profanity at meetings unite us or divide us?
And what does the outside world think? One AA gives his opinion

I was recently in an open speaker meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous. The speaker had the whole room engaged—total unity!

Then the profanity started. At first, there were a couple of small words and then the big one. In a matter of seconds, two thirds of the room was silent while the other third was full of applause and laughter. I was offended, as were many at my table. I sat wondering if those who had laughed were sitting there before the profanity started, thinking: "I can't wait to hear some profanity!"

Was the profanity necessary or did it divide the group, destroy the unity?

This meeting was in a church and I know some of the church members. I hate to think how they would feel about us if they heard us using this kind of language in their home. Would they want us using their facility?

My home group is a large open speaker meeting. This meeting is thriving with newcomers and long-timers, young and old. Our speakers tell their stories in a general way. We ask them to refrain from using profanity, as this meeting is also in a church. The old pastor of this church was very impressed by what we are doing and how we speak. He loved the stories! He would often come to the meeting and sit in the front row and say: "This is where I get to see God in action!"

Now, the first person that suggested AA to me was not an alcoholic. She was someone's grandmother. I often wonder what her first exposure to AA was like. Whatever it was, it was a good one. She lit up when she started talking to me about Alcoholics Anonymous. She even convinced me to go to a meeting...not because I thought I was an alcoholic, but because she thought something there might help me. Although I wasn't as convinced, I did believe that she believed. So I went and it saved my life. Better yet, it gave me a life worth living. What if her exposure to AA had been one of disgust because of four-letter words?

When I was a newcomer and first saw these well-dressed people in AA, I thought I was so different. I had spent 20 years on the waterfront and had a mouth to prove it. After a short time listening to them tell their stories, I realized they had actually been where I had been. But they looked and spoke so differently than me. They didn't need to tell me they had had a spiritual experience. The evidence was overwhelming.

In the famous Jack Alexander Saturday Evening Post story about AA (reprinted in the GSO pamphlet "The Jack Alexander Article About AA," the opening paragraph talks about the very same thing. Alexander writes of watching two alcoholics approach a man in a hospital bed. He says: "The only thing that was noteworthy about the callers, except for the obvious contrast between their well-groomed appearances and that of the patient, was the fact that each had been through the defogging process many times himself."

What would the story have been if Bill and Bob were not well-groomed and had used profanity at that critical meeting?

Our 11th Tradition talks of how our public relations should be guided by the principle of attraction rather than promotion. Today, I don't use profanity, in or out of AA. I want to be the best example of Alcoholics Anonymous that I can be. I found I can engage alcoholics and still be respectful of others. No one yet has ever seemed offended that I do not use any profanity at meetings. And, after all, I never know when someone's grandmother, pastor or doctor is listening.

We do it better when we do it together.

Not one of us has been given a torch big enough to lead the drunks of the world out of the darkness and into the light. Instead, each of us has been given a candle that burns for a short while with a flickering flame. If we stand together, the light will outshine the greatest torch. If we argue and bicker and blow at each other's candle so that each of us starts shielding our own little flame, then the alcoholics of the world will continue to suffer in darkness - and so will we.

Public Information and Cooperation with the Professional Community

- What Is A.A.?
- Singleness of Purpose and Problems Other Than Alcohol
- What Does A.A. Do?
- What A.A. Does Not Do ?

What We Do

A.A. Public Information (PI) has one ultimate goal. We share the same goal as every A.A. group and every type of service work in A.A.: To carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. We try to reach potential alcoholics directly, as well as indirectly in three ways:

1. Informing the general public about the A.A. program.
2. Informing "the third person" who may come in contact with the active alcoholic.
3. By keeping the fellowship of A.A. informed, to members and groups may carry the message more effectively.

Why We Do It

We recognize some of the public has not had the opportunity to find out how the A.A. program works; because of this we understand there might be some confusion regarding A.A. amongst the public.

How We Do It

The methods we use to reach the public are many and vary. They include:

- Letters and phone calls
- Panels
- Presentations
- Literature

We place literature in:

- Court Houses
- Police Stations
- Libraries
- Hospitals
- Schools
- Doctor's Offices
- Hotels and Motels

The public can include:

- Students
- Senior Citizens
- Parent Groups
- Church Groups
- Health Fair Organizations
- Youth Groups/Organizations
- Neighborhood Organizations

What is the Big Book about?

"Its main object is to enable you to find a Power greater than yourself which will solve your problem."
"That means we have written a book which we believe to be spiritual as well as moral. And it means, of course, that we are going to talk about God". Page 45

Most updates to meetings have been done and published, please use the contact form on the website to request updates. We also encourage all groups to update their contact information including email addresses. Working on setting up a mailing list that can be subscribed to so that updates and other information can be sent out on a regular basis to those that wish to receive them in their email. We have a fairly large number of mailing lists available in our contract so we could set up more of them for specific information, the New Frontiers delivery for example. We just need to get the subscription confirmation emails working. There were 26,789 views in January with 7,015 Visitors. There were 22,696 views in February with 6,411 Visitors. Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

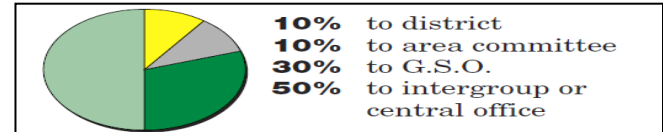

Bill W. wrote of Intergroup Offices, "Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that A.A. must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill."

"Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix" pamphlet

Contributions to A.A. Service Entities

Distribution of funds from groups that support four service entities

50% to Intergroup or Central Office

"We commenced to make many fast friends and a fellowship has grown up among us of which it is a wonderful thing to feel a part of."

-Bill W.

Concept IV: At all responsible levels, we ought to maintain a traditional "Right of Participation," allowing a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge.

- Do we understand the spiritual principles underlying the "Right of Participation"?
- What does "in reasonable proportion" mean? Do we understand when it is appropriate for A.A. paid staff to have a vote at the General Service Conference or in our local service structure?
- Do we expect that, because we are A.A. members, we should be allowed to vote at any group, even if we are not active members of that group?

Spirituality and Money

"While the work of the group treasurer often involves many details, it is important to remember that the money the treasurer oversees serves a spiritual purpose: it enables each group to fulfill its primary purpose of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers. This is the fundamental work of A.A. and to continue it the group must keep its doors open. The group treasurer is an important part of this Twelfth Step work."

GROUP CONTRIBUTIONS 2020

[illegible]

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole.

- Do I insist that there are only a few right ways of doing things in AA?
- Does my group always consider the welfare of the rest of AA? Of nearby groups? Of loners in Alaska? Of internationalists miles from port? Of a group in Rome or El Salvador?
- Do I put down other members' behavior when it is different from mine, or do I learn from it?
- Do I always bear in mind that, to those outsiders who know I am in AA, I may to some extent represent our entire beloved Fellowship?
- Am I willing to help a newcomer go to any lengths – his lengths, not mine – to stay sober?
- Do I share my knowledge of AA tools with other members who may not have heard of them?
