THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

THE HISTORY OF A.A. IN BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Parts of this history were taken from a tape recording by Vince M. on Fathers Day June, 29th 1971, and later transcribed to paper by an unknown source. This article was edited for content and clarity by the Archives of WNY. The original Vince M. document remains untouched in the WNY Archives

My name is Vince M. and I am an Alcoholic I thought it only proper to record on tape, the history of A.A in the city of Buffalo, N.Y. In the early part of 1941, an article appeared in the Saturday Evening Post written by Jack Alexander and was entitled "The Freed Slaves of Drink- Now They Free Others." The story told about a group of men meeting in a hospital room in Philadelphia. Three men sitting around the hospital bed of a sick, deep-fogged alcoholic. Anyone in A.A. can read it, for it is today the oldest pamphlet published by A.A. World Services.

In response to that article, four people in the city of Buffalo wrote letters to the New York Office inquiring about Alcoholics Anonymous. Helen Hock, the then secretary of A.A. in New York, responded by sending hand written letters to the four. In her letters she referred them to a doctor's office or the Family Services Society located on Elmwood and Bidwell Parkway in Buffalo.

The New York Office, at that time was contacting other cities around the country, sending letters to Family Services Societies advising them to use their "good offices" and their knowledge and experience for anyone who wished any information about Alcoholics Anonymous.

A "Big Book" was mailed to the Family Services Society in Buffalo. The Society then contracted with a psychiatrist in Buffalo, Dr Sam Y., who was also given a copy of the "Big Book." The Doctor scheduled his AA "therapy classes" to be held in his home and some in his office at a cost of from five to ten dollars per visit.

The wife of Bob C., one of the four people who wrote New York, when informed of the charge per visit, sent a complaining letter to New York stating that A.A. was a fraud. She reminded New York that as was stated in the Saturday Evening Post article there were to be dues or fees for AA membership. A copy of that letter was immediately sent to Dr. Bob, the co-founder of AA in Akron, Ohio. Dr. Bob contacted Arnie C. in Cleveland, who had six months sober, and was soon to be transferred to Buffalo by his company. He was told of the four people attending these "therapy classes" and was asked to investigate. Ernie moved to his new Buffalo address, 358 Davidson St, and one Thursday night set out to visit the doctors' office with his copy of the "Big Book."

He was met by a nurse who recorded his personal information and asked who referred him and was charged five dollars. There were eight people at this meeting, six men and two women and Bob C. was among them. Arnie C. recognized him from Dr. Bob's description. During the "therapy session" the doctor spoke of "Chapter Five". No "Big Book" was seen; he evidently memorized the passage. After the session was over, Arnie met with the others outside the building and discussed what had taken place at the meeting. Ernie mentioned the letter Bob's wife had written to New York about the fees collected by the doctor. Later that night the men decided to have a meeting at Arnie's home. They learned that the New York Office had contacted the Family Service Society of Buffalo, and asked them to help provide services to anyone seeking help from Alcoholics Anonymous. It was also stated that, under no circumstances would these professionals charge any fees to alcoholics who sought help. The "therapy sessions" at the doctor's office were discontinued. The date was April 8, 1941, the first meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous in Buffalo, N Y.

The group met at Arnie's home until they outgrew the small room and then moved to a church on West Ferry Street in Buffalo. In the summer of 1942, a member of AA suggested the group move into his funeral home for meetings at 299 Highland Avenue.

On November 15, 1944, the Buffalo Evening News wrote the first article about Alcoholics Anonymous. It stated...."

140 Alcoholics Join Group in Four Years

"In less than four years Alcoholics Anonymous has obtained the membership of 140 in the Buffalo Area. The three AA Groups announced today in a statement commemorating the tenth Anniversary of the founding of the movement to restore Alcoholics to a happy and normal life. Three meetings are held twice a week at 95 Johnson Park, 2387 Fillmore Avenue, and 116 Tremont Street in North Tonawanda. Of the 140 members, 67 have been successful in leading a life of sobriety for over 6 months, 28 of the 67 for over 1 year and 13 well over two years, the joint statement declared. The remaining members are on their way to a happy and successful life."

A Toronto man named Doug W., after attending meetings in Buffalo, started the first meeting in Toronto. A man by the name of Mike P., while on a terrible drunk somewhere in New Germany, as it was called, stopped in a "speak easy" and found a recent copy of the Buffalo Evening News classified section and cut out an article from the personal column that stated anyone having a drinking problem should contact a certain telephone number. Weeks later Mike found the article and made the call. He came to Buffalo with his wife and met with Tom McG. at the Ellicott Square Building. After several meetings with Tom MCG., Mike arranged with the owners of the I.O.B.E. Hall in Port Colburn, Ontario to have AA meetings there. This was the very first Canadian meeting in our Niagara Frontier Area.

Well friends, today is Sunday, Fathers Day June 29th, 1971. The City Court Group, which is my home group, is holding its 17th Annual Breakfast meeting. I am coming to the end of this tape and it is my wish to all who listen to it, that you remember as long as alcohol is made there are people who drink it and there will be problems with the alcoholic.

Today, we as AA members, have a responsibility to those who still suffer. We need to remember "what we were like, what happened, and what we are like now". One Day At A Time.

Footnote

Today AA in Buffalo and Western New York has over 300 meetings to help the still sick and suffering alcoholic. We continue to grow and to serve the alcoholic. One Day At A Time.

We Take for Granted our Continued Unity as a Movement – But Should We?

Tradition Ten – An Essay by Bill W. September 1948

To most of us, Alcoholics Anonymous has become as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar. We like to believe that it will soon be as well-known and just as enduring as that historic landmark. We enjoy this pleasant conviction because nothing has yet occurred to disturb it; we reason that we must hang together or die. Hence we take for granted our continued unity as a movement.

But should we? Though God has bestowed upon us great favors, and though we are bound by stronger ties of love and necessity than most societies, it is prudent to suppose that automatically these great gifts and attributes shall be ours forever? If we are worthy, we shall probably continue to enjoy them. So the real question is, how shall we always be worth of our present blessings?

Seen from this point of view, our AA Traditions are those attitudes and practices by which we may deserve, as a movement, a long life and a useful one. To this end, none could be more vital than our Tenth Tradition, for it deals with the subject of controversy – serious controversy.

On the other side of the world, millions have died even recently in religious dissension. Other millions have died in political controversy. The end is not yet. Nearly everybody in the world has turned reformer. Each group, society, and nation is saying to the other, "You must do as we say, or else." Political controversy and reform by compulsion have reached an all-time high. And eternal, seemingly, are the flames of religious dissension.

Being like other men and women, how can we expect to remain forever immune from these perils? Probably we shall not. At length, we must meet them all. We cannot flee from them, nor ought we try. If these challenges do come, we shall, I am sure, go out to meet them gladly and unafraid. That will be the acid test of our worth.

Our best defense? This surely lies in the formation of a Tradition respecting serious controversy so powerful that neither the weakness of persons nor the strain and strife of our troubled times can harm Alcoholics Anonymous. We know that AA must continue to live, or else many of us and many of our fellow alcoholics throughout the world will surely resume the hopeless journey to oblivion. That must never be.

As though by some deep and compelling instinct, we have thus far avoided serious controversies. Save minor and healthy growing pains, we are at peace among ourselves. And because we have thus far adhered to our sole aim, the whole world regards us favorably. May God grant us the wisdom and fortitude ever to sustain an unbreakable unity.

Internet presence: The committee is in need of more hands to help with editing, updating meetings and general design help. You don't necessarily need to be a geek to help. You do not necessarily need to be part of the committee to be an editor. Working on a chat function to provide contact with AA members in need of help. This is not to replace Nightwatch or the 12th step list, but to work in conjunction with it. Any group that would like a demo please email me at the Web Servant email address. Emails will be going out to those that signed up for the two volunteer openings soon to schedule dates. If your homegroup would like a presentation on the chat feature, or just has questions let us know. The online calendar backend has been changed to a different plugin that is easier to maintain and also is better visually. If any problems please let the Web Servant know. Online meetings can now be entered without a physical address and all are currently set to Buffalo, NY. If you would like the City changed (for example: Derby, Williamsville, etc.) please use the Update Meeting form on the website. Printable PDF versions of the schedule are available at <https://Buffaloaaany.org/pdf-schedules/>. Be aware that it is sorted by region so for example all the online meetings are together under Online Meetings. There are also now 4 PDF's that are more complete and have our contact number etc on it. These 4 are done manually and should be updated every 1-2 weeks. One is Portrait format and one is Landscape format and we have added the same format with only Open meetings listed. Those can be used for treatment facilities, schools or other places where people may not meet the criteria for a closed meeting. Working on the format of a mailing list that can be signed up for and can be used by the Central Office and the website for important messages. We have been asked about digital baskets for meetings (these are for meetings themselves, not for the Central Office). The schedule has the ability to add that ability to meetings, but each meeting is responsible for setting up their own accounts. The services that can be used are Venmo, Square Case, or PayPal. Digital baskets can be used by online or physical meetings. Anyone interested in more information or have questions please email the Web Servant

Old Business:

: Discussion about having the Buffalo Fall Convention via Zoom continued. Tom C. will look into pricing for a zoom convention and let the body know what he finds next month. Until then, homegroup reps are encouraged to ask their groups if they would be interested in a virtual convention, and if so, would they be interested in helping run it?

In need of Zone 5 representative, Public information chair, Corrections chair, and Education and Participation chair.

New business:

No new business

Announcements:

Easy Does it meets Thursdays and Saturdays on zoom and in-person, however they may not be meeting on zoom for very much longer.

Next Central Committee meeting will be May 2nd.

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

Tradition Five: Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

- Do I insist that there are only a few right ways of doing things in AA?
- Do I ever cop out by saying, "I'm not a group, so this or that Tradition doesn't apply to me"?
- Am I willing to explain firmly to a newcomer the limitations of AA help, even if he gets mad at me for not giving him a loan?
- Have I today imposed on any AA member for a special favor or consideration simply because I am a fellow alcoholic?
- Am I willing to twelfth-step the next newcomer without regard to who or what is in it for me?
- Do I help my group in every way I can to fulfill our primary purpose?
- Do I remember that AA old-timers, too, can be alcoholics who still suffer? Do I try both to help them and to learn from them?

Concept V: Throughout our structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" ought to prevail, so that minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration.

- Do we encourage the minority opinion, the "Right of Appeal," to be heard at our home group, district committee meetings, area assemblies and the Conference?
- What does our group accept as "substantial unanimity"?
- Has our group experienced the "tyranny of the majority" or the "tyranny of the minority"?
- Does our group understand the importance of all points of view being heard before a vote is taken?

Bill W. wrote of Intergroup Offices, "Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that AA must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill."
