A.A. of the Niagara Frontier

July 2022

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

Tradition Seven

OUR TRADITION of self-support (long form) indicates that "the AA groups themselves ought to be fully supported by the voluntary contributions of their own members . . . that any public solicitation of funds using the name of Alcoholics Anonymous is highly dangerous"; that we should maintain "prudent reserves"; and "that nothing can so surely destroy our spiritual heritage as futile disputes over property, money, and authority."

I believe the perpetuation of this Fellowship, the continuation of its growth, and the maintenance of its effectiveness are fundamentally associated with our willingness to share in the financial costs within the spirit of the Seventh Tradition.

I think self-support is concerned with having group contributions provide the funds for the services involved in keeping AA active and alive, attractive and growing, and spiritual and democratic. By broadening the base of group support--that is, by increasing the amount contributed and the percentage of groups contributing, up to a fully self-supporting level--we can be assured that those services will be provided.

From a spiritual standpoint, self-support can help us avoid the corrupting influences that come from: (1) establishing dues or fees, (2) relying upon outside donations, or (3) resorting to the sale of our recovery program for profit or personal gain.

So long as we can rely upon our own group contributions and so long as we can limit the amount on individual contributions, the problems associated with perilous wealth and authoritative powers will not erode our unity or effectiveness.

Self-support not only avoids corrupting influences, it includes principles that contribute to our spiritual growth, such as self-respect and freedom to express our feelings, as well as to question our own motives, without fear of retribution or worry over loss of operating funds.

It fosters the justice and sense of fairness that come from voluntary sharing in the costs according to our own abilities and our own conscience. With each of us doing our part, the principle of group autonomy is automatically practiced and protected.

Self-support gives us a sense of belonging and the satisfaction of being part of a fellowship that we have helped to foster and nourish.

It brings serenity to our souls through doing our share today. This action both helps us and, at the same time, provides a positive influence in the destiny of others.

Self-support makes for prudence through the exercise of reason and skill in the management of our practical financial affairs.

It is gratifying to note that, in a true sense, we have broadened the base of group support. We have reduced the cost of literature. We have kept costs in line. We are providing good services. Our Fellowship is growing. And in days of rampant inflation, these accomplishments provide more than sufficient evidence, I think, of the spirituality associated with prudent management.

It is not gratifying to note that, in a true sense, many of our groups are not contributing. In a good many cases, the amount from those contributing falls short of even the outdated standard "A Penny a Day for Sobriety." The rate at which we are broadening the base is tediously slow. But here again, I believe there is sufficient evidence to indicate that whenever the groups are properly informed, they themselves want to be fully self-supporting.

In my judgment, there is no area in which prudence plays a greater part in giving a spiritual meaning to a temporal act than in the area of self-support. It can help us become sensitive in our understanding of the meaning of love and service. It can help us become responsible in our approach to unity and recovery. It can strengthen us in the conviction that our concern for those who are yet to come is part of the caring and sharing that ultimately contribute to our own spiritual progress.

It is my belief that, as we individually broaden our own horizons through a more active enjoyment of the spiritual values of self-support, we will collectively improve in our efforts to broaden the base of group support. And if we can do both, I feel certain that God will bless all of us for having done our part in contributing an increased measure of happiness to the "Road of Happy Destiny" that this Fellowship has so generously provided.

Selfless Program For Selfish People : Fr; The Messenger: Middle Tennessee, July 2012

Step Seven, carefully read, ruins the often misquoted cliché:

“AA is a selfish program for selfish people.”

WRONG!

The correct way to present this idea is:

“AA is a selfless program for selfish people.”

Although AA Fellowship members may never be completely rid of selfishness, the Twelve Step program of action helps us face and be rid of at least enough of it to maintain sobriety.

The AA Fellowship
and
The AA Program of action
are two different things.

Let us review an excerpt from the Seventh Step Prayer on page 76: “I pray that you now remove from me every single defect of character which stands in the way of my usefulness to you and my fellows.”

Now, this doesn't exactly sound like a selfish prayer does it? One of Bill W's spiritual mentors, Rev. Sam Shoemaker, stated his consensus of the AA Steps at the 1955 International Convention, in St. Louis:

Out of self
Into God
Into Others

This phrase certainly resonates with the spirit of Step Seven . . . and notice the next phrase did not say, “Grant me strength as I go out from here, so I won't get thrown in the clink (jail) again.”

No! We are asking for the strength to do what God wants.

Reverend Sam Shoemaker made the following statement from the podium of that same St. Louis Convention:

What God Wants:

“There is a great hue and cry today on the part of some people about those who seek benefit from God. I would like to know where in Heaven's name a bewildered and defeated person is going to go for the help he desperately needs if he doesn't go to God for it. Of course he is concerned about himself. He can't help it. He ought to be. He must be if he is ever going to be made useful to other people. But later on he must also grow up and stop just using God and begin to ask God to use him. Stop asking God to do what he wants, and begin to try to find out what it is that God wants.”

I have pasted this quote in my Big Book and read it to newcomers quite often.

EDUCATION & PARTICIPATION COMMITTEE

The purpose of this committee is to foster and encourage group participation in the Buffalo Area Central Committee and to provide training to facilitate participation.

What We Do
The Education & Participation committee is responsible for fostering and encouraging group participation at the Buffalo Area Intergroup. This is done by providing training to new Intergroup

AA Members interested in Corrections service opportunities:

The Erie County facilities at Alden and the downtown Holding Center are preparing to invite outside volunteers into their locations to facilitate meetings once again. Since two years have passed since our last service there, they are planning to generate a completely fresh list of volunteers. All interested members will need to submit information for a background check and must also provide proof of vaccination against Covid-19. We will begin to build our list of approved volunteers and develop a schedule. Erie County DOC would like for meetings to resume sometime in May 2022.

Corrections service work is gratifying and very much appreciated by our members who are incarcerated. If you are interested in service opportunities outside of your homegroup, have some time living sober, have a sponsor and are working or have worked the 12 Steps of AA, please consider volunteering with Corrections. There are separate men's and women's meetings at both facilities.

Please contact Susan P-S for information regarding background checks.

GSA Liaison: Laurie reported: Area 50 Post-Conference Assembly was held on June 4th at Love Joy Church in Lancaster where our Delegate Denise reported back on the 72nd General Service Conference. Denise felt very prepared and THANKS all the GSR's, DCM's and home group efforts. Goal was to have 30 groups participate and we had 35! The Doctor's Opinion will remain where it is and will not be moved to page one as it was in the First Edition of our Big Book. Paper shortages have caused out of stocks on hard cover Big Books. The Big Book is their main printing priority but updating digital version first. Pandemic was very disruptive; we went into a deficit from 2016. Profit from literature sales was declining significantly (10.5M in 2016 to 6.2M in 2021). Always relied somewhat on literature profits but this has caused a re-examination. Once realized the members picked up contributions. In 2022 we're still projected to be 2M short. Able to move a lot online which reduced costs but reduced revenue. Archives Committee reviewed Archives Workbook and received verbal updates in progress: New shared experience on archival work. Revised guidelines for collecting oral history. Replacing gender specific language in workbook and updated archival policies. The 2023 Conference theme will be "AA's Three Legacies - Our Common Solution". The next International Convention will be held in Vancouver, Canada in 2025. If you're interested in reviewing everything that was presented and discussed at the Conference, go to Area50wny.org where all the material is posted on the website. Next GSA meeting is Sept.10th.

Archives: No report Upcoming Archives displays: Buffalo Fall Convention Oct. 7-9 & 11th Annual Archives. Tradition Seven: Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.

- Honestly now, do I do all I can to help AA (my group, my central office, my GSO) remain self-supporting? Could I put a little more into the basket on behalf of the new guy who can't afford it yet? How generous was I when tanked in a barroom?
- Should the Grapevine sell advertising space to book publishers and drug companies, so it could make a big profit and become a bigger magazine, in full color, at a cheaper price per copy?
- If GSO runs short of funds some year, wouldn't it be okay to let the government subsidize AA groups in hospitals and prisons?
- Is it more important to get a big AA collection from a few people, or a smaller collection in which more members participate?
- Is a group treasurer's report unimportant AA business? How does the treasurer feel about it?
- How important in my recovery is the feeling of self-respect, rather than the feeling of being always under obligation for charity received?

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

Concept VII: The Charter and Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments, empowering the trustees to manage and conduct world service affairs. The Conference Charter is not a legal document; it relies upon tradition and the A.A. purse for final effectiveness.

- Do we act responsibly regarding the "power of the purse"?
- Do we realize that the practical and spiritual power of the Conference will nearly always be superior to the legal power of the G.S.B.?
