A.A. of the Niagara Frontier

October 2022

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

The Importance of the Traditions

I was first introduced to the traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous when I had about three years of sobriety. Of course I'd heard the traditions read in meetings and I had a copy of the book "The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions", but I didn't really think they applied to me.

One Tuesday evening a fellow named Paul was the chairperson at the weekly step meeting. He read a quote from the 'Twelve and Twelve' as a part of his share:

"Unless each A.A. member follows to the best of his ability our suggested Twelve Steps to recovery, he almost certainly signs his own death warrant. His drunkenness and dissolution are not penalties inflicted by people in authority; they result from his personal disobedience to spiritual principles."

"Wow," I remember thinking, "There's not a lot of wiggle room in that statement!"

After the meeting I thanked Paul for his share (as I'd been taught to do) and asked him where the quote came from. Then I made what I thought of at the time as 'my big mistake'. I told Paul that I didn't think those two sentences were in my 'Twelve and Twelve.' Smiling Paul asked if I had read the 'Twelve and Twelve.' He paused for a moment, and gratefully I had the good sense to not respond. Then Paul asked, "Have you read the 'Twelve and Twelve' or have you only read 'The Twelve.'" He asked if I would read a novel to the middle of the book, then start at the beginning again (I didn't think it was a good time to mention James Michener's 'Hawaii', which I've still never finished!). Without waiting for my response, Paul suggested that I might want to pull out my copy of the 'Twelve and Twelve' and read not just "The Twelve" but also the "and Twelve."

In reading "The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions" of Alcoholics Anonymous I've learned amazing things about the program and about myself. I've discovered that everything that worked the first 100 put into the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. The stuff that didn't work, Bill writes about in the 'Twelve and Twelve' as cautionary tales and shares the lessons the pioneers of Alcoholics Anonymous hammered out on the anvils of experience.

More than thirty years later I am still a huge fan of the 'Twelve and Twelve.' My experience has been that I cannot put the traditions into practice in my group if I cannot put them into practice in my life. I've learned things like putting unity into practice on my job and with my family --- that we can agree to disagree without being disagreeable. I've learned that my primary purpose when I visit my family is to be the best daughter, sister, and auntie that I can be, not to make sure that they agree with my political views or even the best way to load the dish washer! I've learned that being self-supporting is more than putting a buck in the basket at my group or bringing home a pay-check --- it's picking up coffee cups, making sure that the meeting room is cleaner than we found it . . . and at home it involves taking out the trash and emptying the litter box. And one of the best things that I've learned is that "principles before personalities" is so much more than what I hear people chanting at meetings when the Traditions are read. For me, all of the traditions teach me that "principles before personalities" is that I need to practice the principles of Alcoholics Anonymous in all of my affairs, over MY personality, not over YOUR personality.

WILLINGNESS AND ACTION

From "My Chance To Live" on page 317 of the 4th Edition of the BigBook of Alcoholics Anonymous

"If asked what the two most important things in recovery are, I would have to say willingness and action. I was willing to believe that A.A. was telling me the truth. I wanted to believe it was true in a way I can-not relate in words. I wanted this thing to work. Then I began to take the course of action prescribed."

"When I am willing to do the right thing, I am rewarded with an inner peace no amount of liquor could ever provide. When I am unwilling to do the right thing, I become restless, irritable, and discontent. It is always my choice. Through the Twelve Steps, I have been granted the gift of choice. I am no longer at the mercy of a disease that tells me the only answer is to drink. If willingness is the key to unlock the gates of hell, it is action that opens those doors so that we may walk freely among the living."

I grew up in a household that had social drinking as well as an alcoholic. I thought drinking was part of being a man. In the end King Alcohol had beaten me into submission although submit I would not and simply could not. I was at the jumping-off point mentioned in the Big Book. True growth came after the fall from egocentric destruction. A life of being only too willing to take the short cuts, blame others for my shortcomings and unmet expectations was coming to a close.

It was not until I realized that I was the center of all my problems that I had a chance of staying sober. The seductive elixir of alcohol lost its death grip on me for a very small window of time. The reality that my downfalls came from my own actions hit me like a ton of bricks one day as I looked in the mirror.

Someone recognized the defeat in my eyes and introduced me to a life far more fulfilling than the only life I had known. When I came to A.A. I had no hope to end the suffering of my life. I got a sponsor and was willing to take some suggestions, the Steps, and eventually help others. The hope my sponsor gave me was built on trust; trust that this program would work. Through my sponsor's personal stories and experiences this trust built a solid faith that things do work out if I don't pick up a drink one day at a time. From my own personal experiences of willingness I have found this amazing power working through me. I am simply the conduit and it's brought me closer to others and to myself. Doing the steps and being willing to ask for guidance through prayer, and working with a sponsor as well as newcomers, I have grown. I sense a deeper connection with my world and a profound sense of personal and interpersonal growth that money simply could never buy.

I have found that willingness to face my fears and challenges head-on, with honesty and open-mindedness, has slain the paper dragons that kept me from true peace, contentment and a life much richer than I had ever wished.

"There is a principle which is a bar against all information, which is proof against all arguments and cannot fail to keep a man in everlasting ignorance – that principle is contempt prior to investigation."

Chuck B. gave a presentation on the history of service in Area 50 since the last inventory in 2015. Our inventory process is being facilitated by Nikki O. who is a past delegate from Area 28 (Maine). We had round tables where we discussed the presentations, and we were to develop suggestions for the six inventory topics. The 4th topic is Increase Cooperation and Coordination with Intergroups in Area 50, particularly the area of service activities (so we're not duplicating efforts). I want to express the importance of having as many AA members be a part of this inventory process as every AA member has a voice. You do not have to be a GSR or DCM to attend Area 50 meetings. The next ACM is Sept. 17th @ 10AM-Noon at Wayside Presb. 5017 Lakeshore Rd., Hamburg or via Zoom ID#99342724284. The next GSA is Nov. 12th 10AM-2PM at Harvest Chapel Methodist 39 Matteson St., Fredonia or via Zoom ID# 99342724284. Interested in knowing what's going on in Area 50 visit the website Area50wny.org

Tenth Step Promises

Alcoholics Anonymous
Chapter 6
Page 84

And we have ceased fighting anything or anyone— even alcohol.

For by this time sanity will have returned.

We will seldom be interested in liquor. If tempted, we recoil from it as from a hot flame.

We react sanely and normally, and we will find that this has happened automatically.

We will see that our new attitude toward liquor has been given us without any thought or effort on our part. It just comes! That is the miracle of it.

We are not fighting it, neither are we avoiding temptation.

We feel as though we had been placed in a position of neutrality—safe and protected.

We have not even sworn off. Instead, the problem has been removed. It does not exist for us.

We are neither cocky nor are we afraid. That is our experience.

That is how we react so long as we keep in fit spiritual condition.

Tradition Ten: Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

- Do I ever give the impression that there really is an "AA opinion" on An-tabuse? Tranquilizers? Doctors? Psychiatrists? Churches? Hospitals? Jails? Alcohol? The federal government? Legalizing marijuana? Vitamins? Al-Anon? Alateen?
- Can I honestly share my own personal experience concerning any of those without giving the impression I am stating the "AA opinion"?
- What in AA history gave rise to our Tenth Tradition?
- Have I had a similar experience in my own AA life?
- What would AA be without this Tradition? Where would I be?
- Do I breach this or any of its supporting Traditions in subtle, perhaps unconscious, ways?
- How can I manifest the spirit of this Tradition in my personal life outside AA? Inside AA?

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

Concept X: Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.

- Do we understand "authority" and "responsibility" as they relate to group conscience decisions by G.S.R.s, D.C.M.s and our area delegates? 4
- Why is delegation of "authority" so important to the overall effectiveness of A.A.? Do we use this concept to define the scope of "authority"?
