January 2026

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE NEWSLETTER FOR ALL A.A. MEMBERS OF WESTERN NEW YORK AND THE NIAGARA FRONTIER

Mental Obsession (The Great Unreality Deep Within)

Someone wrote that an alcoholic cannot drink on the truth — only on a lie. The Big Book tells us that alcoholics have found a Great Reality deep down within (p. 55).

Reality infers truth! Historically, Such Reality protected Dr. Bob from his ever-lurking hooker of scotch for two and a half years...but, when I was new in AA, and still making an assessment of the Twelve Steps, I discovered many inconvenient-truths of which my ego was fain to admit, let alone allow change. Actually, I was living in a great un-reality deep within, which would not allow me to recognize the truth in the matter of drink

—I was irretrievably imprisoned in a lie. As Dr. Silkworth explained: “I could not differentiate the true from the false in the matter of drink”. (xxviii)

So, there I was; faced with the dilemma of being rid of my long-lived, truth-resisting, ego-self, or getting drunk. Yes, I was willing . . . but how to be rid of my false ego-self that for so many years served as my only defense against a threatening world?

Although I had been attending meetings regularly, the obsession to drink had not diminished one iota. One of my favorite authors stated that most people spend the first part of their lives developing a protective ego-self, but some lucky ones spend The last of their time on earth getting rid of it.

I was forty-three years old and sober about six months when a new sponsor explained that self could not rid self of self with self, so I obviously needed a power greater than myself. He then taught me how to give up on my false self by living the AA program of action. A few months later, I experienced the release I had so earnestly prayed for! The obsession had been lifted! Then began a lifetime process of remaining “absent” of that great unreality deep within. My second part of life has blissfully begun. Thank you God ~

When my Sponsor Drank

Like many lessons in sobriety, placing people in AA on pedestals is something that I did not understand the full implications of initially. I had been putting recovering alcoholics on pedestals since before I even got to . My dad, for example, had been sober twelve years before I made it to the rooms, and based on his horrendous battle with booze before AA, I was sure he was a walking miracle.

My own sobriety began a number of years later, after many physical, emotional, spiritual, and legal problems with alcohol. At that point, it was suggested I get a sponsor who had been through the Steps and lived a life that I myself wanted to live. I found somebody who seemed to fit that bill, and we soon began a daily dialogue that led to him guiding me through each of the Twelve Steps.

Weeks meshed into months as we saw each other regularly at meetings, reviewed chapters in the book, and traveled to various AA functions around our state. I listened intently to his emphasis on prayer and gratitude as I built my foundation and took a personal inventory. I completed my Fifth Step with him and proceeded through my Eighth and Ninth Steps with the selfless guidance of this man whom I regarded with in-tense respect and unending praise.

My sponsor and I met weekly as I began to incorporate a daily inventory into my sobriety and listened to him describe his own experience with meditation. Upon reaching the Twelfth Step, my sponsor asked me to look back on the journey we had gone through together and to turn to others to give away what I had received.

I found myself very energetic about sobriety and more than willing to approach newcomers. I began working closely with new men in AA while other areas of my life began to get busy. That's when I found out my sponsor had picked up a drink.

I was shocked. I could not believe that the man who had brought me through the Steps into a new way of life had drunk again. I felt lied to and betrayed. I had seen people go back to drinking since coming into the pro-gram, but in the case of my sponsor, I felt personally sick with frustration and misunderstanding.

After talking with others, I was made aware that sobriety was not guaranteed forever, and I was directed to page 85 of the Big Book, which discusses the daily reprieve we have from alcoholism and how the maintenance of an alcoholic's spiritual condition must take place on a daily basis. In the end, I realized I hadn't been betrayed at all. Instead, I had learned the important lesson that none of us are guaranteed a lifetime of sobriety and that putting someone on a pedestal can be dangerous for me and for the alcoholic I admire.

It has been over three years since this occurred, and I have tried to remain grateful for each day that I am sober, using the amazing AA principles my sponsor taught me in my first year of sobriety.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE shows that nothing will so much insure immunity from drinking as intensive work with other alcoholics.

"Why don't you choose your own conception of God?"

That statement hit me hard. It melted the icy intellectual mountain in whose shadow I had lived and shivered many years.

I stood in the sunlight at last. It was only a matter of being willing to believe in a power greater than myself.

Nothing more was required of me to make my beginning.

The Envelope System was established to allow AA members to directly contribute monies to help defray the costs of operating the Buffalo Central Office, which in turn helps carry the message. By keeping the lines of AA open, through the Central Office, the hand of AA may be ever more accessible to the troubled alcoholic.

Joining the Envelope System gives you an opportunity to put our 12th Step into action and allows you to say in one more way ... I am responsible.

There are many costs involved in keeping the Central Office open, such as telephone, postage, lights, rent, etc.

Tradition One: Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity.

- Am I in my group a healing, mending, integrating person, or am I divisive? What about gossip and taking other member's inventories?
- Am I a peacemaker? Or do I, with pious preludes such as "just for the sake of discussion," plunge into argument?
- Am I gentle with those who rub me the wrong way, or am I abrasive?
- Do I make competitive AA remarks, such as comparing one group with another or contrasting AA in one place with AA in another?
- Do I put down some AA activities as if I were superior for not participating in this or that aspect of AA?
- Am I informed about AA as a whole? Do I support, in every way I can, AA as a whole, or just the parts I understand and approve of?
- Am I as considerate of AA members as I want them to be of me?
- Do I spout platitudes about love while indulging in and secretly justifying behavior that bristles with hostility?
- Do I go to enough AA meetings or read enough AA literature to really keep in touch?
- Do I share with AA all of me, the bad and the good, accepting as well as giving the help of the fellowship?

"We have recovered, and have been given the power to help others. What greater cause could there be for rejoicing than this?"
Alcoholics Anonymous p.132

Concept I: Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship. • Does our group have a general service representative (G.S.R.)?

- Do we feel that our home group is part of A.A. as a whole and do our group's decisions and actions reflect that? •
- Do we hold regular group conscience meetings encouraging everyone to participate? Do we pass that conscience on to the district, area, or the local intergroup meetings? •
- Is the "collective conscience" of Alcoholics Anonymous at work in my home group? In my area? •
- Where do we fit in the upside-down triangle of A.A.? •
- Are we willing to do what it takes to insure that our democracy of world service will work under all conditions? •
