One of the most common misconceptions of these gatherings is that they are AA meetings and so there should be "no dues or fees" as per our 7th tradition. However, the Buffalo Fall Convention is a special event and not a regular AA meeting. No baskets are passed.

The Unselfish Spirit

Accepting The World as It is

— Rick R.

"Our primary purpose is to stay sober and to help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety." The degree that the individual carries out these two goals is not mandated by the A.A. Alcoholics Anonymous body and "the only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking." The A.A. program offers suggestions on how to overcome the difficulties brought about by the disease of alcoholism and not simply the act of drinking. These difficulties come in the form of spiritual damage and material wreckage.

It seems that our spiritual damage lies in the unseen part of our makeup such as, our thinking, our motive, our fears, our conscience, our ego, guilt, shame, self-esteem, and the like.

Our material wreckage often comes as the result of our spiritual damage and is the residue of our spiritual condition. "Selfishness- Self - Centeredness! That, we think is the root of our trouble." (page. 62, Big Book – Alcoholics Anonymous) That, being said, isn't it apparent that unselfishness would be the solution to our trouble? That seems to oversimplify the solution but, in my experience, it is so simple that it is usually overlooked.

Most alcoholics have spent their lives taking advantage of everything and everyone around them and as the result, have been plagued by the guilt and shame that only a drink could mask. The program of A.A. suggests that we live by principles. I cannot find one selfish principle in the Big Book (Alcoholics Anonymous) or the 12&12 (Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions).

I believe that most of the people that truly have a desire to stop drinking and embrace the A.A. program start to change the behaviors that they recognize as counterproductive. This is simply because they can hear these things that we all share at meetings, and they change the most obvious shortcomings in their day-to-day activities. This is a good start and with time it starts to erode much of the shameful habits of past that had become commonplace. Talk of inventories and amends cause us to think at a different level about those material matters. That is usually the only thing that we are aware of in the beginning. When we talk about spiritual matters, it seems that we all have different perceptions of exactly what we mean by spiritual.

If, for the sake of simplicity, we think of spirit as our innermost self, such as our ego, conscience, our mind, our heart, or soul, if you like, and realize that this is where our spirit resides and where our emotions live, and where the pain of our past thrives. If we want to achieve the peace of mind that is promised in Step Nine, we will have to come to terms with the process of acceptance of the world as it is and of the people in that world.

If we want to be accepted and forgiven for our past mistakes, we must be willing to accept all the people that we find fault with and give them the same latitude that we are seeking. To accomplish this, we can stop being judgmental and replace that with an understanding spirit. We will have to replace gossip and character assassination with compassion and empathy. If we can't do that, then how can we expect the world around us to accept us and forgive us for our past mistakes?

This is no time to rest on our laurels, so to speak. It's time to begin cleaning out the attic. This is where we begin to free up that space in our minds that has been keeping us awake at night. This is truly the path to developing the unselfish spirit. With it come a peace of mind that's hard to imagine while we were still playing God ourselves. It costs me nothing to be kind. My wish for those other people is that they can someday find the same peace of mind for themselves that this process has provided me. What more can I say.

Ready to get involved in A.A.?

A.A. members work together to help the alcoholic who still suffers. Helping each other is a key to staying sober. There are many opportunities to participate in a variety of ways. The best place to start getting involved is through an A.A. group. Participating in a group helps ensure that when a person reaches out for help, A.A. will be available.

HELP WANTED

Why Should We Pay To Go to A.A. Events?

Why, some members have asked, do A.A.s have to pay a fee to attend an A.A. conference, convention or other special event? As one Californian wrote to the General Service Office, "Some of us have difficulty when it comes to having the A.A. name attached to any gathering that requires payment to participate. What's more, some of the prices at many of these functions are not cheap." And, he adds, "what about the payment of travel expenses and lodgings for certain 'select' speakers?"

It's true that A.A. membership is free, and meetings and most A.A. events are self-supporting in the spirit of the Seventh Tradition. But conferences and conventions are A.A. get-togethers beyond the group-meeting level, generally ranging from special one- or two-hour meetings to banquets and weekend events--area, statewide, regional and international. These events require months of planning, preparation and money presented up-front to the hotel and other commercial facilities involved. Arrangements may also be made for A.A.s with special needs: providing wheelchair accessibility, sign-language interpreters for the deaf and, in some instances, programs in Braille for the blind.

Additional expenses include the printing of flyers, schedules, postage and supplies, not to mention renting meeting space, insurance coverage, travel and accommodations for the invited speakers, many of whom live a thousand miles or more from the convention site. As the A.A. Guidelines on Conferences and Conventions, available from G.S.O., state, "It should be made clear, when the speakers are booked, what terms are being made for expenses. Unless it's otherwise specified, speakers have a right to assume that all their travel, meal and hotel expenses will be paid. Speakers will also expect hotel or motel accommodations as a matter of course; if they're to be guests in private homes, this should be explained well before their arrival."

How are the costs of a convention covered, and what can be done to ensure that the venture won't go deep in the red? According to the aforementioned Guidelines, "there's no substitute for common sense here; the committee must take a businesslike approach to finances and keep expenditures somewhere within a conservative estimate of anticipated revenues."

Among the sound methods that seem to be in general use: (1) underwriting of the event by area groups. Since the registration fees can be established at a level sufficient to cover the total costs, this should result in no actual out-of-pocket costs to the groups; and (2) building a convention fund to which the area groups contribute year-round. This method obviates the need to charge a registration fee except for visitors from out-of-state.

The criterion for using the A.A. name generally specifies that the event be put on by A.A.s for A.A.s about A.A.s. Although a golf tournament or a dance are beyond the purview of A.A.'s primary purpose, such events are often scheduled as social adjuncts to the main meetings and workshops scheduled.

When Al-Anon participates in an A.A. convention, the relationship and financial arrangements usually follow one of two patterns: When an A.A. convention committee invites Al-Anon to participate with its own program, A.A. may pay all expenses (for meeting rooms, coffee, etc.) and keep all income from registrations and such in a single fund earmarked to cover the convention bills, after which any excess income reverts back to A.A. Alternatively, Al-Anon may have a separate registration and cover its own expenses directly, besides assuming its share of common expenses. In this case, Al-Anon receives its own share of the registration income and also shares in any losses incurred.

In this very room...

There's something that happens in AA, between members that I haven't felt elsewhere. I sense the presence of God I cannot explain. The moment of silence before the Serenity Prayer. Sitting with another alcoholic during a tough spell. Not because you know what to do or say, but because you know in your heart, it's where you need to be, to give what you can. Every time what You get is so much more.

Through September continuing to reach out and meet with specific areas of the professional communities that may interact with alcoholics.

GSA Liaison: : Tracy reported. GSA was held on 09/12/2026 in Holland NY. The finance committee presented the area budget proposal for 2027 & 2028 to be voted on at the ACM & the November GSA. The proposed budget of 2027 is $21k and 2028 is $22k. Expenses are higher than contributions with the area projected to run out of funds within five years. Only 56 of 254 groups registered at area are contributing because they don't know what area is. Tax exempt status would reduce expenses without reducing services. The majority opinion decided to vote on the 2027 & 2028 scheduled, which was approved. The 5th Edition will be available to purchase by February 1st, 2027, with a list price of $20. NERAASA will be held February 26th - 28th 2027 in Tarrytown NY, registration is not yet open. Area 50 is hosting NERF, May 21st - 23rd, at the Sheraton Hotel. Denise M is coordinating volunteers for the event. Area 50 is also hosting NY-SIW in July 2027 with more details coming soon. Vote for Area 50's Northeast Regional Trustee candidate was between Denise M & Steve J, with Denise receiving the majority vote and is now the Area 50 candidate. Congratulations to Denise! The next GSA is on November 7th, hosted by District 4 in the Tonawanda area.

Tradition Ten: Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

- Do I ever give the impression that there really is an "AA opinion" on An-tabuse? Tranquilizers? Doctors? Psychiatrists? Churches? Hospitals? Jails? Alcohol? The federal government? Legalizing marijuana? Vitamins? Al-Anon? Alateen?
- Can I honestly share my own personal experience concerning any of those without giving the impression I am stating the "AA opinion"?
- What in AA history gave rise to our Tenth Tradition?
- Have I had a similar experience in my own AA life?
- What would AA be without this Tradition? Where would I be?
- Do I breach this or any of its supporting Traditions in subtle, perhaps unconscious, ways?
- How can I manifest the spirit of this Tradition in my personal life outside AA? Inside AA?

Intergroup wants to express our appreciation for those groups and individuals who have made generous financial contributions, and give a special thank you to all the members who have volunteered their time this year to help the sick and suffering alcoholic.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE shows that nothing will so much insure immunity from drinking as intensive work with other alcoholics.

Concept X: Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.

- Do we understand "authority" and "responsibility" as they relate to group conscience decisions by G.S.R.s, D.C.M.s and our area delegates? 4
- Why is delegation of "authority" so important to the overall effectiveness of A.A.? Do we use this concept to define the scope of "authority"?

7th tradition self-support
 contribution

Bill W. wrote of Intergroup Offices, "Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that AA. must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill"
